PREFACE.

THE ten parts which this volume comprises have already been issued separately, and now appear in a collective form with a General Index. Since the publication of the various parts the information contained in them has been subjected to careful revision, and in some cases the tables have been entirely recast. It is possible, however, that some errors may still remain uncorrected; if there be any such which come under attention information concerning their nature and position would be gladly received.

The following pages contain chiefly matter in a tabular form, and should therefore be read in conjunction with the "Wealth and Progress of New South Wales," an annual publication, based for the most part on the figures found in this volume, and designed, as its title shows, to illustrate the resources of this Colony.

PART I.—SHIPPING.

Collection of Shipping Returns.—Under the Customs Regulation Act of 1879 (42 Vic. No. 19), all vessels entering ports of New South Wales are reported to the Custom House within twenty-four hours after arrival, and vessels leaving must obtain certificates of clearance before being allowed to sail. All the particulars of vessels "entered" and "cleared" published in this Part are obtained from the ships' papers. The Returns are exclusive of ships-of-war, cable-laying vessels, yachts, and vessels trading between ports of New South Wales. A vessel is "entered" at the first port of call within the Colony, and "cleared" at the port whence the final departure was taken. Those arriving from or departing for European or other countries beyond the seas via intercolonial ports are "entered" from and "cleared" for places outside Australasia.

Publication.—For particulars relating to Regulations for Shipping and Commerce see "Customs Handbook, 1893," obtainable at the Government Printing Office.

Mail Service between United Kingdom and Australia.—The P. & O. Company, in 1851, established a direct mail service between the United Kingdom and Australia, and has, with few interruptions, regularly continued the service ever since. In 1869 mail communication with Europe via San Francisco was established. In March, 1878, a further expansion of the mail service between the colonies and the United Kingdom took place by the despatch from London of the pioneer steamer of the Orient Company. During 1880, the British India Company's steamers commenced running between Queensland and the United Kingdom, via Torres Straits. In 1893 another line of communication with the United Kingdom was inaugurated by the Canadian-Australian line of steamers running to Vancouver.

Direct Communication with France, Belgium, and Germany.—Communication was established between France and the Colonies in 1883 by the mail-steamers of the Messageries Maritimes Company. In 1887 the Norddeutscher Lloyd of Bremen line of mail steamers commenced running between Germany, Italy, and Australia; and in the latter part of 1888 the German-Australian line of cargo-steamers opened up further communication with the wool-exporting cities of Australia and the ports of Antwerp and Hamburg. In addition to these, several lines of steam and sailing vessels, under the British flag, run direct to Dunkirk and Antwerp, notably the "Gulf," "Lund," "Port," and "White Star" lines. Large cargoes are also sent away by "ocean tramps," chiefly British, which make occasional visits to Australian ports.

Murray River.—A considerable volume of tonnage is engaged on this river. Commencing at Albury, situated at the practical head of navigation, the stations, in topographical order westward, are:—Howlong, Corowa, Mulwala, Cobram, Tocumwal, Moama, Swan Hill, Euston, and Wentworth. With the exceptions of Euston and Wentworth, the trade at these stations is carried on exclusively with Victoria. From Albury to the South Australian Border the length of the Murray River is 1,100 miles. Wentworth, the chief station for traffic by water, is situated at the confluence of the Murray and Darling Rivers. At Albury, Howlong, Corowa, Mulwala, and Moama, bridges connect these stations with Victoria. The trade at the first mentioned is the most important of all the river stations, largely exceeding that of Moama, which ranks second. There are bridges at Tintaldra and Jingellic; others are in course of construction at Hawk's View and Tocumwal. At crossing places where no Customs officers are stationed the Police collect the duties and forward the returns to the nearest Custom House. No "clearances" are recorded at Moama, as all vessels "entered" at this station are "cleared" either at Swan Hill, Euston or Wentworth. For trade returns of Murray River stations, see Part II, "Commerce."

Inequality of Entered and Cleared Returns.—The trade between ports of New South Wales largely disturbs the balance of the Entries and Clearances from and to ports outside the Colony. It will be seen in the above Table that the returns of "Entered" for the Port of Sydney largely exceed the "Cleared," while at Newcastle opposite conditions exist. At Sydney a considerable number of vessels are "Entered," which, after discharging, proceed to Newcastle for outward freights, and are "Cleared" at the latter port. The returns of some of the southern ports are affected by similar practices.

Life-boats and Life-saving Appliances.—There are only two Life-boats proper on the coast of New South Wales, one being at Sydney Heads, and the other at Newcastle ; all the whaleboats, however, at the various pilot-stations are fitted with cork linings, &c., and have rendered excellent service in saving life. Life-saving appliances are, in addition, supplied to Richmond River, Clarence River, Macleay River, Trial Bay, Port Macquarie, Manning River, Newcastle, Sydney, Wollongong, Kiama, Shoalhaven, and Twofold Bay.

Harbour and Light Rates.—Every registered vessel is subject to a half-yearly rate of 4d. per ton on the net tonnage. Ships-of-war, cable-laying vessels, vessels in distress, whalers, and pleasure yachts are exempt from dues. The amount collected for all ports during 1893 was £17,330.

Pilotage and Removal Dues.—The same exemptions obtain for pilotage, except vessels in distress, which are charged half-rates. Captains of vessels of any nationality who have obtained Exemption Certificates are not liable for pilot dues. A minimum tonnage charge of £2 10s. is made upon arrival and also on departure of vessels at the ports of Sydney and Newcastle, and £1 5s. at other coastal ports, for vessels of 150 tons and under, and 75 tons and under, respectively. An additional 4d. per ton on the net register is charged on shipping over these limits. The amount collected during 1893 for pilotage was £29,135, and for removal dues £3,044, giving a total of £32,179 for all ports.

Jurisdiction of Marine Board.—This Board, in shipping transactions of a general nature, acts in conjunction with the London Board of Trade, and has jurisdiction over all British ships, as defined in the Imperial Merchant Shipping Act of 1854 (17 and 18 Vic., cap. 104). In shipping casualties the Board holds inquiries whenever the ship's first port of entry is in New South Wales, and in cases of wrecks when the survivors land at a port within the Colony. In addition to the above casualties to shipping there were nine vessels—the Peerless, Agnes Rose, Jessie, Daphne, Sandfly, Frias Craig, Colwyn, Girvan, Larmonia—lost at sea. During 1893 thirty-four inquiries were held, of which twenty-eight were heard by the Board at Sydney, and six by the local Board at Newcastle. Seventeen masters were examined for loss of vessels, fifteen of whom were exonerated, and two had their certificates suspended for three months. During the same period eight inquiries relating to collisions were held. Four masters were reprimanded, three suspended and one exonerated. Two other inquiries were held into the grounding of vessels; both masters were exonerated.

Waterman's License.—A fee of 10s. is charged, which entitles the holder to ply for hire for an indefinite period. During 1893 three licenses were issued. The above figures show the total number of licenses issued to the end of each year, and do not of necessity represent the number of watermen plying for hire.

The Marine Board of New South Wales was incorporated under the Navigation Act of 1871 (35 Vic. No. 7). Amending Acts, however, have been attached since that date. The Board consists of seven Wardens, four of whom, including the President, are appointed by the Government, and three are elected by the registered owners of shipping of not less than 100 tons. For the position of an elective Warden it is necessary to possess the qualification of being a registered owner of not less than 250 tons of shipping. The elections take place triennially, the first one held being in 1872. Provision has been made for the creation of local Marine Boards under the superintendence of the Marine Board of New South Wales, one of which has been established for Newcastle, but the Marine Board of New South Wales has direct control wherever local Boards or Trusts are not in existence. The Board is empowered to supervise all matters relating to steam navigation, and transactions in connection with the issue, suspension, or cancellation of certificates of competency and service, the framing of harbour regulations, the preservation of ports, harbours, rivers, &c., the licensing, appointment, and removal of pilots, the regulation of lighthouses, lights, and river-marks, moorings, licenses to lighters, waterman's, steam ferry, and other boats, harbour and river steamers, &c.

Revenue.—The amount collected during 1893 was :—Pilotage, £29,135; Removal Dues, £3,044; Harbour and Light Rates, £17,330; and Fees (examination), £1,688. Total, £51,197.

Wollongong Harbour Trust.—Under the authority of the Wollongong Harbour Trust Act, 1889 (53 Vic. No. 19), the full management and control of the port of Wollongong have been vested in twelve Commissioners, who act independently of any other body. For further particulars see Part X, "Miscellaneous."

Act relating to Merchant Seamen.—The Seamen's Laws Consolidation Act of 1864 (27 Vic. No. 13) applies only to vessels registered in the Colony; British vessels registered elsewhere arriving in New South Wales are subject to the Imperial Merchant Shipping Act of 1854 (17 and 18 Vic., cap. 104). Shipping Offices are established at Sydney and Newcastle, the business at the other ports being undertaken by the local Customs Officers. The Local Act (27 Vic. No. 13) provides for the protection and discipline of the seamen, provision being also made for the enforcement of various penalties for breaches of the Act. It also defines the mode of procedure between master and seamen as regards wages and provisions, and requires the shipmaster to notify to the Shipping Office engagements and discharges of seamen.

Fees.—A scale of fees, for the engagement and discharge of crews, is embodied in the Act, the amount payable being regulated according to the tonnage of the vessel. For engagement of crews the minimum fee is 2s., and for discharge, 4s. In respect of the engagements and discharges of seamen separately, a fixed fee of 2s. is imposed.

Quarantine.—The Board of Health, which at present consists of eleven members, has entire control of all matters appertaining to health and quarantine. In the year 1893, proclamations against Europe, Western Australia, France, and Mediterranean Ports were rescinded. During the early part of 1894, four proclamations under the Quarantine Acts were in force against vessels arriving from China and Hong Kong, Mauritius, East Coast of South America, and Colombo. There is only one quarantine station, which is situated at North Head, Port Jackson, and is considered one of the most completely equipped stations in the world. Separate quarantine stations have been established for live stock, the laws relating to which are administered by the Department of Mines and Agriculture.

Imperial Passenger Acts (13 & 19 Vic., Cap. 119, and 26 & 27 Vic., Cap. 51).—The Board of Health is solely responsible for the carrying out of the Acts, the provisions of which apply to vessels carrying more than 50 passengers on voyages over 400 miles from any port within the British Empire. Until recently the proclamation of 1856 was in force, which defined the duration of voyage, dietary scale, &c. This has now been superseded by one made in 1894, which has been drafted more in accordance with the present conditions of shipping. The fees for each inspection are £2 2s. for the Marine Surveyor and £1 1s. for the Medical Inspector. Forty vessels were "cleared" under the Act during 1893.

Definition of a "Sufferance Wharf."—Any private wharf for which a sufferance has been granted in pursuance of the Customs Regulation Act (42 Vic. No. 19) for the landing of goods subject to the payment of Customs duties.

Wharfage and Tonnage Rates.—Under the provisions of the Wharfage and Tonnage Act of 1880 (44 Vic. No. 8) rates of this character are imposed on all vessels berthing at public or sufferance wharfs. A common tariff and scale of charges have been adopted. Tonnage Rates, amounting to one farthing per registered ton per diem, are levied on all vessels fully laden, and one halfpenny on those partly laden discharging at the wharfs; vessels loading of 240 tons register and above are subject to a rate of one halfpenny per diem; under this limit a fixed rate is imposed. For steamers the rates are levied on the gross tonnage measurement. During a certain period, known as "Free Lay Days," vessels fully laden discharging are exempt from tonnage rates. The number of "Free Lay Days" is regulated by the tonnage of the vessel. Tonnage Rates.—In addition to these charges, all goods landed are subject to "Inward Wharfage Rates," and goods shipped to "Outward Rates," the latter being one-half the former. Goods arriving from Australasian Colonies or Pacific Islands landed at public wharfs and "Entered" for Transhipment are exempt from wharfage rates. In some cases the Government wharfs are leased to private companies, and the rent of the wharf is accepted in lieu of tonnage dues, but wharfage dues are collected, as in the case of ordinary wharfs.

Revenue.—The total revenue collected for public wharfs during 1893 at the port of Sydney was £53,864, of which £22,879 were wharfage rates, £6,122 tonnage dues, and £24,863 rent, &c. At the port of Newcastle no wharfage rates are imposed; the tonnage rates collected at this port during 1893 amounted to £7,260, which, added to the total collections for the port of Sydney, gives a revenue for public wharfs of £61,124. (See also Note, Part II, "Commerce," page 251.)

Publications.—Pamphlets giving wharfage and tonnage rates are obtainable at the Government Printing Office.

PART II.—COMMERCE.

The Collector of Customs has authority under various Acts to administer affairs relating to Customs; the body of the law, however, is contained in the "Customs Regulation Act of 1879" (42 Vic. No. 19) and the "Customs Duties Act" of 1891 (55 Vic. No. 16). Under the provisions of the first-mentioned Act a Board of Commissioners of Customs is established, which consists of three persons. The functions of the Board are to hear and determine disputes between officers of the Customs and the general public in matters relating to the Department. The decisions are, however, subject to the rulings of the Supreme Court and Privy Council. In the exercise of their duties the Commissioners have power to frame rules, orders, and forms for the general conduct of business in relation to matters submitted to them, but have no administrative powers in the working of the Customs Department whatever.

Foreign Transit Trade.—The trade of New South Wales shown with certain countries, particularly Belgium, France, Germany, and China, must not be taken as a complete statement of the commerce between those countries and New South Wales. Wool, for instance, figures largely as an export to Belgium; but that country is simply a distributing centre for the Continent for that article, while the outward trade of the first three countries named is swollen by goods sent from other European countries via Belgian, German, and French Ports; similarly the trade of China is understated, as a large portion of it filters through Hongkong. On the other hand, large quantities of goods produced on the continent of Europe are forwarded via England, and included in the returns of the United Kingdom. The import returns for each article represent the volume of trade at the port of shipment irrespective of the country of origin.

Transhipments.—Entries under this head contain only the description of the packages. Particulars relating to value and quantity are not asked for, as no law is in existence requiring the information to be furnished. Transhipment transactions are chiefly confined to the port of Sydney, where a considerable transit trade is done with Queensland, New Zealand, and New Caledonia.

Transhipments from New South Wales entered as Imports by other Colonies.—Goods shipped from ports of the Colony are, as shown in the preceding paragraph, not included in the Export returns of New South Wales. It is the practice, however, in some Colonies to which goods are transhipped to enter such articles as exports of New South Wales. This practice causes a discrepancy between the returns of the exports of New South Wales, as given in the foregoing Tables, and those given by the importing Colonies, with regard to many articles, such as fruit, in which a considerable transhipment trade is done between New South Wales and the other Australasian Colonies.

Border Stations.—The Stations in order from east to west on the Southern Border (Victoria) are—Albury, Howlong, Corowa, Mulwala, Cobram, Tocumwal, Moama, Swan Hill, Euston, and Wentworth; on the Western Border (South Australia) Willyama; on the Northern (Queensland) Wallangarra, Boggabilla, and Barringun.

No. 3.—GENERAL IMPORTS (Seaward and Overland) of New South Wales during 1893.

Collection of Trade Returns.—The values and quantities of the imports and exports are in nearly every instance those furnished by importers and exporters or their authorised agents. In the case of the imports, the particulars are obtained under declaration; this procedure is not generally adopted for the export returns, although the Collector has power to demand particulars of goods under declaration if necessary. No official valuations are made, but the entries are, nevertheless, checked and altered if necessary by competent officials connected with the Customs.

Imports.—Articles subject to Specific Duties.—The values given are understood to represent the values at the port of shipment, with the cost of freight, insurance, packing, and porterage added. Articles subject to Ad valorem Duties.—The values given are supposed to represent the market values of the goods (less cost of packing and cases) at the time and place of exportation, in addition to 10 per cent. thereon. The values of goods are in every case supposed to be Ex-Duty.

Exports.—Articles of export are valued at the port of shipment or inland station at which the goods leave the colony, and the quantities and values given are obtained from the bills of entry.

Like Denominations for Imports and Exports.—See explanatory note, page 95.

Tariff.—The present tariff came into force on the 2nd December, 1891. See page 263. (Customs Duties Act of 1891 55 Vic. No. 16.)

Proof Spirit.—Alcohol of the specific gravity of 0·92 at 60° Fahr. is proof spirit. The standard of proof spirit by which all mixtures of alcohol and water are judged contains 57·27 per cent. by volume, and 49·50 by weight, of alcohol. Spirits other than bitters, essences, sarsaparilla, tinctures, &c., are subject to a duty of 14s. per gallon of proof spirit, but a proportionate reduction in the duty is allowed on spirits to 16·5 under proof, of less strength the duty is enforced as at that strength. The returns of spirits given in the general imports and exports are stated according to measure, whereas the quantities shown in the "Customs Revenue Collections" are gallons of proof spirit. The quantity of spirits withdrawn from bond during each year is not the amount imported during the year for home consumption, as it is a common practice to keep spirits in bond for an indefinite period.

No. 4.—GENERAL EXPORTS (Seaward and Overland) of New South Wales during 1893.

Articles for Consumption and Use on Voyage.—Articles, subject to duty, obtained for ships' requirements are classified as Exports, and are considered part of the trade of New South Wales with the countries for which vessels are bound. This fact should not be overlooked in some of the returns of trade. The outward trade, however, is exclusive of free goods as the information is not readily obtainable.

Like denominations for Imports and Exports.—As far as practicable a common basis is adopted; in some instances, however, articles of import are received under one denomination which appear in the export list under another; also in some cases goods are classified under general headings, while in the other instances specific headings are used; this irregularity cannot be obviated.

Exports.—Articles of Export are valued at the port of shipment or inland station at which the goods leave the Colony, and the quantities and values given are obtained from the bills of entry.

* Domestic Export of Wool.—The export of Wool during the Calendar Year does not represent the clip of the season, as the outward trade during the year January to December includes portions of the clips of two seasons. The commercial wool year commences on the 1st July and ends on the 30th June. The bulk of the sheep are shorn between May and November.

Adjustment of Returns.—The figures relating to domestic and foreign exports have been adjusted through the gold returns being amended. In those years where there is an excess of Export of gold coin over Imports of gold coin and gold bullion, the difference has been accepted as the domestic export; when opposite conditions obtain the whole of the gold coin has been classed as other than domestic produce, no credit being taken for the manufacture of the gold into coin at the Sydney Mint.

Confiscations.—All goods seized by the Customs are submitted to auction sales held periodically; and should the sum offered be less than the amount of duty leviable the goods are withdrawn and destroyed.

Ports at which Wharfage and Tonnage Rates are levied.—Both classes of rates are collected at Sydney, Coff's Harbour, Woolgoolga, and Byron Bay. At Newcastle Tonnage Rates only are imposed, the Wharfage Rates being abolished on the 1st June, 1882, under the authority of the 12th section of the "Wharfage and Tonnage Rates Act, 1880." The rates collected at Newcastle are an item of Customs Revenue. The Wharfage and Tonnage Rates collected at Sydney are paid in under the head of Miscellaneous Receipts of General Revenue. At no other port are rates of either class collected by the Government. During July, 1890, a considerable number of additional wharfs were proclaimed "public or legal wharfs"; no further action however has been taken.

For Pilotage, Removal Dues, Harbour and Light Rates, and Wharfage and Tonnage Rates, see part I. "Shipping," pages 26 and 32.

Import Tariff.—The Tariff of late years has undergone many revisions. In 1884 the duties were slightly increased on Opium, Tobacco, and Cigars. Cigarettes and stearine were also added to the list of dutiable articles. During 1886 considerable additions were made to the specific list while the ad valorem duties after having been in abeyance since 1873 were re-established. In the following year, however, the tariff was considerably modified and the ad valorem duties again abolished. During December, 1891, many additions were made to the number of dutiable articles and ad valorem duties were again imposed.

Excise Tariff.—Prior to 1884 the only excise duty in force was on locally distilled spirits; in the year named, however, tobacco, cigars, and cigarettes manufactured in the Colony were added to the list, and in 1887 an excise tax of 3d. per gallon on beer was imposed, while the duty on distilled spirits was increased from 12s. to 14s. per gallon, proof.

Tax on Chinese.—The first Act [25 Vic. No. 3] to regulate and restrict the immigration of Chinese came into operation, February, 1862. Under its provisions a tax of £10 per head was imposed on Chinese immigrants to New South Wales, and Certificates of Naturalisation were disallowed; this statute was repealed in November, 1867, and till December, 1881, no restrictions were in force against Chinese entering the Colony. In that year, however, an Act [45 Vic. No. 11] was passed which imposed for a second time a tax of £10 per head. In 1888 this Act was repealed, and a more stringent one [52 Vic. No. 4] adopted. No Chinese unless those coming under exemption clauses of the Act, are now permitted to enter New South Wales either by sea or land without the payment of a tax of £100, while the granting of Certificates of Naturalisation has been suspended by the Act. Chinese naturalised in other colonies are not entitled to the right of British citizenship in New South Wales.

Tobacco Factory Licenses.—Under the provisions of the "Tobacco Act of 1884," "A and B" licenses for the manufacture of tobacco, cigars and cigarettes, are issued. The cost of the "A" licenses ranges from £5 to £50, and the "B" licenses from £100 to £250. Persons taking out "A" licenses, who are small manufacturers, generally confine their transactions to the manufacture of tobacco and cigars, while those obtaining "B" licenses are proprietors of large factories where tobacco and cigarettes are chiefly manufactured. During 1893, 19 "A" licenses and 6 "B" licenses were in force.

Tobacco—Licenses to Sell.—An annual fee of 5s. is imposed on persons selling tobacco, cigars and cigarettes. The year to commence from the date of issue of license.

At the three first-mentioned places goods were received under Bonded Certificates only, whilst the Inward trade of Bourke and Wilcannia was recorded at Wentworth, and that of Morpeth at Newcastle. The Bond at Cobar and the Station at Silverton were closed during April and October, 1893, respectively. Export returns were, however, collected at Brewarrina, Wilcannia, and Bourke.

Drawback of Import Duty.—A drawback of the full duty paid on importation is allowed on goods if exported in original packages as imported, provided that the Collector of Customs is satisfied that in all respects the goods are in the same condition and of the same value as when they were entered for duty on importation. Drawbacks of duties are allowed on ale, beer, wine, opium, medicines, toilet preparations containing spirit, but not on intoxicating spirits, other than those enumerated, tobacco, cigars, cigarettes, tinctures, perfumed spirits, Florida water, and bay rum. Unlike Refunds there is no limit to the period in which Drawbacks may be obtained. Drawback of Excise Duty.—Drawback is allowed on beer only, although refunds are also made on beer which has been spoiled or become unfit for use after removal from the Brewery.

Bonding Warehouses.—Under the authority of the Customs Regulation Act of 1879, License Fees are collected on Bonded Warehouses. For every warehouse with a storage capacity of 50 tons and under an annual fee of £50 is imposed, and for every additional 10 tons, £1; the maximum fee, however, is fixed at £300. The amount of license fees collected during 1893 was £10,255. In addition, the warehouse-keepers give security, by bond or otherwise, for goods warehoused. Under the provisions of the same Act, 465 persons were licensed during 1893 to carry bonded goods. No fee is attached to the license, but the licensee is obliged to enter into a conditional bond.

SAILING VESSELS.—Fares by sailing vessels are in nearly every instance a matter of private arrangement between the captain of the vessel and the intending passenger; but the number of such passengers is becoming smaller from year to year, owing to the great decrease of the rates of steamer fares. Fares to London are, however, given as £35 to £42 first class and £20 to £25 second class, and to San Francisco as £30 first class and £15 to £20 second class.

PART III.—PUBLIC FINANCE.

No. 1.—CONSOLIDATED REVENUE FUND ACCOUNT, for the year ending 31st December, 1893.

Accumulated Cash Deficiency.—The particulars given on this page clearly illustrate the position of the finances (Revenue Account) of the Colony to the 31st December, 1893. As the returns are compiled according to the cash transactions within the year, the excess of payments shown represents the actual accumulated cash deficiency at close of each year. The statement at bottom shows, in addition, the estimated amount necessary to meet outstanding liabilities contracted during 1893 and previous years, which, added to the "accumulated cash deficiency" on the 31st December, 1893, gives the total deficiency to the close of that year. The amount referred to, however (£1,109,085), does not include the deficit liquidated by Treasury Bills.

General Post Office New Street Resumption Account and Centennial Park Account—In Suspense.—On the 31st October, 1894, the debit balances of the General Post Office New Street Resumption Account, and Centennial Park Account, were respectively £335,613 and £198,261.

Deficiency Debt of 1886 and previous years—Account closed.—On the 31st December, 1886, the Debit Balance of the Consolidated Revenue Account was £1,286,581 (see below); this amount is exclusive of the outstanding liabilities of 1886 and previous years, which were met between January, 1887, and March, 1890. At the latter date the "Deficit of 1886 and previous years" was estimated to be £2,608,237. To cover this deficiency an Act was passed in September, 1889, giving authority to issue £2,600,000 Treasury Bills. The net amount issued was £2,502,884, and the bills are being paid off by annual instalments of £150,000; the amount outstanding on the 31st December, 1893, was £1,902,884. No bills were issued outside the Treasury, the Trust Funds being available. During 1891 the account was finally closed, as the last payment was made in that year, the actual cash deficit on "Appropriations of 1886 and previous years" was £2,502,182.

No. 3.—Expenditure under EACH YEAR'S APPROPRIATIONS, 1884-93.

Difference between Expenditure under each "Annual Appropriation Act and Special Appropriations," and the amount of cash payments made during the calendar or fiscal year.

The expenditure under each "Annual Appropriation Act and Special Appropriations" includes all sums expended on account of the services included in the year's appropriations, whether the payments were made during the year the expenditure was authorised, or in succeeding years; hence the above statement must not be confused with those given in Tables Nos. 1 and 2, which give the actual cash payments during each calendar year, and the accumulated credit or debit balance of previous years brought forward. The particulars given below are chiefly useful in establishing a relation between the income of the year and the money appropriated for the services of that year; as, for instance, it will be observed that the appropriations for each year 1884-87 exceeded the income, in 1888 there was a surplus, and so on. The expenditure under the "Appropriations of 1888" was less by £260,769 than the income of the year. The accounts giving the actual cash receipts and cash payments during that calendar year showed, however, a credit balance of £510,865 (Table No. 2) on the 31st December; but at the same date, the accumulated deficiency amounted to £1,668,715, as given in Table No. 2. The accounts prepared under the cash basis system (Tables Nos. 1 and 2), however, show the actual financial position of the Colony.

No. 4.—REVENUE and RECEIPTS on account of the CONSOLIDATED REVENUE FUND for year ended 31st December, 1893.

General, Territorial, and Consolidated Revenue.—Prior to the date of the passing of the Constitution Act, the Revenue of the Colony was divided into two branches, the General and Territorial. The collections under the former were expended by the local authorities, while the Territorial or Land Revenue was expended for local purposes by the Imperial Government. Advances made and repaid.—The transactions given refer to temporary arrangements of the Treasurer to meet pressing obligations. The amount of advances repaid during 1893 was £471,269 7s. 4d., as shown on page 285. Judged by the figures given, the transactions under "Advances made" appear very large, but as a considerable portion of the sum advanced during the year is repaid during the same period the amount to be ultimately met is small. The whole of the sum advanced in "Anticipation of Loan Votes" during 1893 was repaid during that year, and also £8,782 under like conditions was refunded from Revenue and Other Sources.

Auction Sales.—The area submitted for auction annually must not exceed 200,000 acres (1884 Land Act).

Conditional Purchases.—Under the 1861 Act the completion of the purchase could be indefinitely postponed by paying 5 per cent. on the unpaid balance. Under the 1875 Act the instalment principle was first introduced. Payments were—5s. per acre deposit, annual instalments—principal and interest—of 1s. per acre, and 5 per cent. on unpaid balance. Under the 1884 Act the deposit per acre was reduced to 2s., and the rate of interest on unpaid balance was reduced to 4 per cent. For Conditional Purchases without residence the deposits and instalments are double those prescribed on ordinary Conditional Purchases, and for Special Areas the deposits and instalments are fixed by proclamation in the Government Gazette, and vary according to circumstances.

Royalty on Minerals.—Royalties are collected under the 1884 Act (48 Vic. No. 10). Prior to 1890 the provisions of the Act were not enforced, owing to a doubtful clause. The revenue from this scurce will argely increase.

No. 8.—REVENUE and RECEIPTS, Consolidated Revenue Fund, 1884–1893.

The Consolidated Revenue Cash Account closes on the 31st December. The Treasury officials are, however, allowed until the 31st March to prepare for transmission to the Auditor-General the accounts for the year. Up to the 31st March corrections in transfers can be made; the totals of each sub-head as established by the Treasury in the annual report issued 31st March are not varied, notwithstanding that similar statements of the Auditor-General attached, may in some instances show slight differences. The distribution of the Revenue and Expenditure under each sub-head may however be amended between the 31st March and the date when the Auditor-General's report is issued.

Interest on the Public Debt.—The figures given include only interest paid, and not charges such as those incurred for the management and payment of the half-yearly dividends of Inscribed Stock by the Bank of England, exchanges within or beyond the Colony, &c.

Railways and Tramways.—The expenditure under the head of Railways and Tramways does not include the £6,000 a year paid as Salaries to the Commissioners for Railways, and the pension to the ex-Commissioner.

† Accumulated Surplus.—At the end of 1877 the Accumulated Surplus, after all Outstanding Liabilities up to that date had been met, amounted to £2,509,270. The Revenue for 1878, 1879, and 1880, was not sufficient to meet the money appropriated and spent in those years, so that the balance at close of 1880, after all liabilities had been met, was reduced to £1,896,329. The surpluses of 1881 and 1882 however increased the fund to £4,421,162 at the end of the latter year. Between 1882 and 1885 considerable sums were spent out of the Accumulated Surplus under special appropriations and otherwise, with the result that this fund became practically exhausted at the end of 1885. As late however as 1890 small payments were made from the Accumulated Surplus, but for liabilities contracted under the Appropriation Acts of 1883 and former years. Until 1883 the Government had, therefore, a reserve fund to meet any revenue deficiency arising, but from 1883 no further assistance could be obtained from this source.

* 1892 and 1893 Expenditure.—The expenditure for 1892 is exclusive of a large sum paid in London during that year for interest on the Public Debt; 1892 expenditure on Railways, Tramways, &c., Services is consequently understated, while the loss on the same Services for 1893 is correspondingly increased. The figures given for both these years must be taken with this qualification.

What constitutes the Public Account.—The Audit Act recognises only one "Public Account" for all receipts and payments connected with Consolidated Revenue, Trust Funds, or Loan Services. For convenience in working, however, the "Public Account" as now constituted consists of transactions under Consolidated Revenue Account, and Trust Funds subject to the "Audit Act," only.

Public Works Committee.—Under the provisions of the "Public Works Act of 1888" (51 Vic. No. 37) a Parliamentary Standing Committee on Public Works is appointed during the first session of each Parliament. Its functions are to report to Parliament upon proposals for public works, other than those connected with Military and Naval Defence, and the carrying out thereof. The Committee consists of thirteen Members of Parliament, five of whom are chosen from the Legislative Council, and eight from the Legislative Assembly. The Committee confines its investigations to works estimated to cost over £20,000, whether the proposed expenditure is from Loans or Consolidated Revenue; under the amount mentioned the Ministerial head of the Department has power to sanction the expenditure without reference to the Committee. During 1893 the remuneration paid to members of the Committee was £1,134.

First Loan raised in London.—In 1855 New South Wales placed on the London market the first instalment of a 5 per cent. loan for £683,300. This was the first external loan raised by a colony of Australasia.

No. 17, viz., £175,839, was made good from the Con. Rev. Fund.

† Municipal Loans taken over by Government in the years shown.

Treasury Bills.—Treasury Bills as shown do not form part of the Funded Debt, and when the last payment in redemption has been made the Bills disappear from the Public Accounts.

Public Debt on 30th June, 1894.—The amount of the Public Debt on 30th June, 1894, was £58,337,283, viz.:—Funded, £53,684,399, and Unfunded, £4,652,884.

No. 16.—LOANS REDEEMED to 1st January, 1894, and the SOURCES out of which the Funds for Redemption were provided.

The Imperial "Colonial Stock Act, 1877," provides for the inscription and transfer of stock raised in the United Kingdom and for stamp duty to be levied thereon. It also defines the position of the British Government as regards Colonial indebtedness, and provides that every document connected with stock transactions shall have printed upon it a distinct intimation that no liability, direct or indirect, is incurred by the British Government in respect to such stock, unless the loan is under Imperial guarantee. Local Acts have been passed in conformity with the provisions of the Imperial Statute by each Colony of Australasia, the New South Wales Inscribed Stock Act (46 Vic. No. 12) being passed in 1883.

First Issue of Inscribed Stock.—From 1842 to 1883 it was the general practice to raise loan moneys under the form of debenture bonds. In the latter year, however, the "Inscribed Stock Act of 1883," as previously mentioned, was passed with the object of providing for the issue and inscription of stock, and from that date the system of raising loans by debentures was abolished. The first loan floated under the new conditions was in 1883; but the Act coming into force shortly after the negotiation of the £2,000,000 Debenture Loan of 1882 the holders of the scrip had the option of exchanging the bonds for inscribed stock, a privilege which was availed of to the extent of £1,186,300.

Debt at close of each year. It is the practice of the Treasury, when establishing the amount of the Public Debt at the close of the year, to take into consideration only the amount of Stock brought to account during the year. This does not necessarily include the whole of the Stock sold during that period. In the foregoing Return the total amount of Stock sold during each year has been debited to the accounts of the year in which the stock was sold, whether it was brought to account in that or any subsequent year. The amounts given for some years differ from those published by the Treasury.

Reduction of Debt—Explanation.—It will be noticed that on the 1st January, 1894, the Debt was considerably less than on the preceding day, the difference is represented by £1,250,000 Treasury Bills retired on the later date; practically this sum was included twice in the Debt on the 31st December, as the £2,500,000 issued on the 5th October, 1893, was floated with the object of supplementing the Loan Funds from which these bills were retired. Similarly the £832,000 Loan floated September, 1894, was raised to retire debentures to that amount maturing 1st January, 1895; the latter amount, however, is, and will be, included in the Debt statement twice till the debentures have been retired.

British Deposits.—Apparently some of the returns under the head of "Other Liabilities" in balance-sheets include a considerable amount of British deposits. The assumed sum has been taken from the amount under the former head and included with that under the latter, consequently the amount under the head "Other Liabilities" in above return is less than that given in the previous table, while the deposits are correspondingly larger.

Banks of Issue.—Under the provisions of the Banking Act, 4 Vic. No. 13, as amended by 5 Vic. No. 24, the Banks of Issue are obliged to furnish quarterly sworn returns of transactions within N. S. Wales only according to the sub-headings given in the above Table. The figures are established on the weekly accounts, and represent the average liabilities and assets for the quarter.

 Total Assets.—Prior to 1893 it was the practice with some Banks to include the excess assets over liabilities of branches operating outside the Colony; the total assets and the "balances due from other banks" for 1892 and previous years must, therefore, be accepted with this qualification.

No. 7.—INVESTMENT, TRADING, and COMMERCIAL COMPANIES.—Liabilities and Assets, for December Quarter, 1893. (Returns apply only to operations within New South Wales).

Companies Act.—The Companies are incorporated under the Companies Act (37 Vic. No. 19). During 1879, Act 42 Vic. No. 21 was passed, which provided for the extension of the provisions of the Banking Act, 4 Vic. No. 13, as amended by 5 Vic. No. 24, to Limited Liability, Investment, and Trading Companies operating within New South Wales; it is, therefore, obligatory for the Companies to make quarterly sworn returns similar to those made by the Banks of Issue. The subjoined table gives the list of all Companies compelled under the Act to furnish returns; but those formed prior to the passing of the 1879 Act, are not required to publish accounts.

No. 12.—SYDNEY BRANCH, ROYAL MINT.—Currency.

Branches of Royal Mint.—The Sydney and Melbourne Branches of the Royal Mint are the only ones in existence in the British Possessions, the Mints at Calcutta and Bombay being established on a different basis. The Sydney Branch was opened on 14th May, 1855, and that of Melbourne on 12th June, 1872. Gold only is coined in the Branch Mints, the silver and bronze coin required for circulation in the Australasian Colonies being obtained from the London Mint. The expenditure of the Colonial establishments is borne by the respective Governments, the amount granted annually to the Sydney Mint being £15,000, the bulk of which, however, is refunded under the head of Mint Receipts.

Light Gold and Silver Coins.—Light gold coins in parcels of not less than £50 nominal value are received at the Sydney Mint and recoined free of charge, but depositors are required to bear the loss by abrasion. The worn silver withdrawn from circulation is forwarded to England for recoinage.

Seignorage.—The difference between the nominal value of silver and the average price per standard ounce paid by the London Mint represents the seignorage or gross profit. The coinage or nominal value of silver per standard ounce is 5s. 6d., and the price per ounce paid by the London Mint during 1893 averaged 36$\frac{5}{16}$d. The difference, 29$\frac{11}{16}$d., represents the seignorage accrued; against this, however, must be placed the loss to the Imperial Government by purchase of worn silver at its nominal value, but after making all allowances for loss by abrasion, minting, &c., the seignorage must be considerable.

Cable Subsidies and Guarantees.—Each of the Colonies, except Queensland and New Zealand, contribute pro rata to population for the subsidy to cable to Europe, and the short cable to Tasmania. The New South Wales Government does not bear any of the expense of the alternative line, Adelaide to Banjowanjie, via (Roebuck Bay) Western Australia. Each Colony, except Queensland, guarantees against loss in connection with reduced rates on the New Zealand cable, whilst New South Wales and Queensland each guarantee the French Telegraph Company against loss—not exceeding £2,000—on the cable to New Caledonia. Communication was established with this island on the 19th October, 1893. The subsidies and guarantee contributions of New South Wales for the year ended 30th April, 1894, were—

Amounts under the heads of Mortgages and Reconveyances incomplete.—In many instances the amounts lent upon mortgage by the banks are not stated, but simply the words "valuable consideration" or "cash credit" inserted in the deed. As this occurs frequently when the properties mortgaged are evidently of great value, the absence of the amounts must materially affect the returns, and, as a consequence, the amounts under the heads of "mortgages" and "reconveyances" are necessarily incomplete.

No. 30.—REAL PROPERTY ACT, 26 VIC. No. 9 (commonly known as "Torrens'").—Land brought under the Act, 1888–93.

"Torrens'" Act.—The Real Property Act (commonly known as "Torrens' Act") was passed in 1862. In 1873 the Act was slightly amended, and a further amendment was made in 1878. In the last amendment an important clause was inserted, whereby the registered owners of the land are protected from the operation of the Statute of Limitations, and therefore the title is not liable to be taken from them by any length of adverse possession. To indemnify the Government for compensating persons who, through error, may have been deprived of their properties, an Assurance Fund has been created by a contribution of one half-penny in the pound being levied on the declared capital value of property brought under the Act. This fund at the end of 1893 amounted to £125,611.

Lien on Wool and Mortgage of Sheep.—When any sum has been secured, both by a lien on the wool and by mortgage of the sheep, the amount is included under the head of mortgages only. Thus in 1893, the gross amount lent on liens was £2,068,098; but from this has to be deducted the sum of £132,438, secured both by lien on the wool and mortgage on the sheep, and included in the figure in the last column, so that the net amount lent on lien was £1,935,660.

Under Act 26 Vic. No. 10.
Liens on Growing Crops.—An Act to legalise preferable liens on yearly crops (26 Vic. No. 10) was passed on the 9th December, 1862. Under its provisions liens on agricultural and horticultural produce may be made, and are valid without parting with the possession thereof.

Area alienated during 1893.—During 1893 an area of 638,832 acres (page 354) was disposed of under the various forms of alienation. The area alienated at the end of 1892, after allowing for 338,754 acres (page 358), representing net Disallowances, Forfeitures, Voidances, and Reductions in Area made during 1893, was 43,714,105 acres, which, added to the area alienated and in process of alienation during the same year—638,832 acres—gives a total, as stated above, of 44,352,937 acres.

* Exclusive of area of Crown Lands held in virtue of Miners' Rights and Mineral and Business Licenses, the extent of which is not known.

† Conditional Leases are in a certain sense Alienations, as the holder has the option of purchase as an additional conditional purchase. See Table No. 12, page 363.

No. 2.—LAND TRANSACTIONS during 1893.

Land Laws.—The body of the existing law is contained in the Crown Lands Act of 1884 and the Supplementary Act of 1889 (48 Vic. No. 18, and 53 Vic. No. 21 respectively). Under the 1884 Act the Colony was divided into three great territorial divisions—Eastern, Central, and Western, the boundaries of which however, were amended by Government Gazette notice in August, 1885. The Eastern Division covers an area of 60,452,000 acres, the Central, 55,460,000 acres, and the Western, 79,970,000 acres. The boundaries of the 141 counties existing were not interfered with. Under the same Act provision was made for each of the three divisions to be divided into Land Board Districts, and these again to be sub-divided into Land Districts. The number of the former at the end of 1893 was 14 and the latter 103.

Surrenders, Exchanges, and Resumptions.—Transactions under the two former are made under the 46th section of the 1889 Act, and the latter under the 42nd section of the same Act. Being merely land exchanged for land without any monetary consideration the extent of the area of Crown Lands is not thereby affected.

Auction Sales during 1893.

Auction Sales.—Crown Lands not exceeding 200,000 acres in the aggregate for the whole Colony in any one year may be sold by auction. Town lots are not to exceed ½ acre, suburban 20 acres, and country 640 acres. The upset price for such land is fixed by the Minister, and is limited by law at not less than £8 per acre for town lands, £2 10s. for suburban lands, and £1 5s. for other lands. A deposit equal to 25 per cent. of the purchase money is required on auction sales other than under system of deferred payments, and the balance must be paid within three months after the sale.

Auction Sales under system of deferred payments.—Under the "Auction Sales Balances Act of 1887," the Minister may make special terms of payments on auction sales of town and suburban lands, and lands subdivided into areas not exceeding 20 acres for sale by auction, pursuant to section 61 of the 1884 Act. The time allowed for deferred payments must not in any case exceed five years from date of sale, and deferred payments bear interest at the rate of 5 per cent. per annum.

Improvement Purchases during 1893.

Improvement Purchases.—Persons who, by virtue of miner's right or business license issued under the Mining Act, reside on land within a proclaimed gold-field, may, in consideration of improvements of a minimum value of £8 per acre for town lands and £2 10s. for suburban and country lands, purchase the land without competition.

The maximum area of land now available is limited to ¼ acre of town and 1 acre outside town boundaries. Applications made, however, prior to the 1884 Act becoming law are dealt with under the 1875 Act, under which the maximum area available for purchase was 640 acres.

Conditional Purchases.—The smallest area, outside special areas, which can be conditionally purchased, whether under residential or non-residential conditions, is 40 acres. In the Eastern Division the maximum area that can be conditionally purchased is fixed at 640 acres (or by converting the Conditional Lease into an Additional C.P., the area can be increased to 1,280 acres), and in the Central Division at 2,560 acres. In the Western Division ordinary lands are exempt from conditional purchase, but lands within special areas can be conditionally purchased. In the Eastern and Central Divisions the holder of any residential ordinary conditional purchase is entitled to a conditional lease up to three times the area of his conditional purchase, provided that the total area, including the portion leased, does not exceed 1,280 acres in the former division and 2,560 in the latter. The conditional lease may be converted into an additional conditional purchase. Non-residential conditional purchases, both in the Eastern and Central Divisions, whether within special areas or ordinary Crown lands, cannot exceed 320 acres. No residential conditional purchase within a special area can exceed 320 acres in the Eastern, or 640 acres in the Central and Western Divisions.

Conditional Purchases—Special Areas.—The system of proclaiming Special Areas available for Conditional Purchase was first introduced under the Act of 1884. The prices of the lands are determined by the Governor-in-Council, and are advertised in the Government Gazette when the Special Areas are proclaimed. The prices vary from 30 shillings per acre upwards according to the estimated value. The minimum area outside suburban or population boundaries has been fixed at 40 acres in each division, and the maximum in the Eastern Division at 320 acres, and for the Central and Western Divisions 640 acres. The conditions to be fulfilled are similar to those of the Ordinary Conditional Purchase. No provision is made in the Crown Lands Acts for Conditional Leases being taken up in Special Areas. In the Eastern Division no Conditional Lease of ordinary Crown Lands can be taken up by virtue of a Conditional Purchase within a Special Area, but according to a Ruling of the Supreme Court this prohibition does not apparently apply to the Central Division.

Special Areas within Suburban or Population Boundaries.—Any Lands within Suburban or Population Boundaries which have been proclaimed Special Areas are available for Special Area Conditional Purchase. The conditions of payment are similar to those of Special Areas outside, which are :—Survey Fee, a deposit of $\frac{1}{10}$th of the purchase money on the date of application, an instalment of $\frac{1}{20}$th of the purchase money at the expiration of three years from date of application, and instalments annually of a like amount till the payments with interest are completed, the yearly payment including interest at the rate of 4 per cent. on the unpaid balance. Residence is compulsory.

Crown Rents.—The amount of Rent collected on the Leases is that stated by the Lands Department, and consequently differs somewhat from the Treasury Returns shown in "Part III, Public Finance."

No. 12.—PARTICULARS relating to OCCUPATION—1893.

Forms of Lease under 1884 and 1889 Land Acts.—Prior to the 1884 Act the only forms of lease granted were Pastoral, Annual, Special, and Pre-emptive. Under the 1884 Act provision was made for each of these forms of lease to be continued except the pre-emptive, which was abolished. Under the same Act, Occupation Licenses, Conditional and Homestead Leases were established. The supplementary Act of 1889 provided for five additional forms of Lease, which were as follows, viz. :—Scrub, Snow Land, Artesian Well, Residential, and Inferior Land.

Division in which Lease may be granted.	Currency of Lease under Crown Land Acts of 1884 and 1889.	Limit of Area.	Remarks.
Pastoral Leases.
Eastern, Central, and Western.	Eastern Division—Leases expired, 1890. Central Division—10 years currency from 1885 ; leases expire 1895. Western Division—15 years currency (1884 Act) ; 21 years currency from 1890 (1889 Act).	No limit fixed	Areas under pastoral lease are exempt from conditional or unconditional sales or any form of lease. The bulk of the pastoral leases in the Eastern Division expired in 1890, but as late as 1893 an area of 67,635 acres was under lease. This area represents two leases, which were divided on 15th November, 1889, under the provisions of the 1884 Land Act, the leases having 5 years currency from that date. During April, 1894, the leases were forfeited for non-payment of rent ; all the pastoral leases in this division have therefore expired.
Occupation Licenses.

Western only.	Fifteen years currency from 1885 (1884 Act) ; 21 years currency from 1890 (1889 Act).	Maximum, 10,240 acres ; minimum, 2,560 acres. Under section 34 Act 1889, the minimum area can be reduced to 640 acres.	Areas under homestead lease are exempt from conditional purchase. Lands held under annual lease or occupation license are available for homestead lease.

Survey Fees.—The cost of surveying lands, whether for sale or lease, except areas submitted for auction sales (other than those under "Auction Sales Balances Act of 1887") or occupation license, is wholly or in part borne by the purchaser or lessee. In case of dedications the Government receive in some instances a portion of the expenses incurred. For conditional purchases, conditional leases, and special leases the fees are similar and range from £1 for 1 acre to £18 for 2,560 acres. For amount of survey fees collected 1862–92, and during 1893, see Table No. 10.

Refunds include amounts refunded departmentally as well as under appropriation. The large amounts shown in 1889 and 1892 were due to refunds to pastoral lessees. The refunds in the latter year were under the "Crown Rents Act of 1890."

Labour Settlements.

The Labour Settlements Act (56 Vic. No. 34), assented to 13th June, 1893, provides that Crown lands may be made available for labour settlements. Separate Boards of Control of not less than eight nor more than sixteen persons are appointed, and land may be leased for twenty-eight years with a right of renewal. The Board enrols desirable persons, and, on approval of the Minister for Lands, loans of money are granted. The rent of land and the first repayment of a loan are not required until four years from date of lease.

At the close of 1893 three settlements were established, viz. :—Pitt Town and Wilberforce, in the Windsor District; and Bega, in the Land District of Bega.

Pitt Town Settlement (area 2,100 acres).—100 men were selected as members, who with their families made a total of 430 persons. At the close of the year the improvements on the Settlement were estimated at £1,440, exclusive of stock and implements costing £630. The Government have granted a loan of £2,330.

Bega Settlement (area 1,330 acres).—26 members were enrolled, or with families, 70 persons. A sum of £500 has been credited to the Board and expended in the purchase of necessities and in the construction of buildings.

Wilberforce Settlement.—Unlike others, the number of members was limited to 40, and each was required to expend £20 before applying for a loan. 38 members, or with families, a total of 129 persons, joined the settlement. During the latter part of the year the value of improvements was estimated at £750, in addition to £150 value of stock, tools, &c. During February, 1894, £800 was advanced by the State.

ADDENDUM.

AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE EXPERIMENTAL FARMS AND NURSERY.

Hawkesbury Agricultural College and Farm.—The buildings and furnishings of this College and Farm, now in their fourth year of existence, are approaching completion. At present the buildings occupied by the students are remote from the operations of the farm. During 1893 there were 52 students enrolled, one being non-resident, and 9 were awarded the College diploma, which is accompanied by the "Burdekin" medal, founded by Mr. Sydney Burdekin. The Minister's and the Principal's prizes (gold medals), as well as book prizes for various subjects, are awarded annually. Theoretical and practical instruction is afforded by experts in every branch of agriculture, and experimental work is carried on with cereal and other crops, fertilisers, the analyses of soils, dishorning and spaying of cattle, etc. The live stock belonging to the farm and college during 1893 consisted of 22 horses, 12 bullocks, 181 dairy cattle, 25 pigs, and 43 wethers. The principal operations were :—

Acres.	Crop.	Yield per acre.	Acres.	Crop.	Yield per acre.
100	Oats and wheat.. ..	1 ton to 30 cwt. hay.	13	Swede turnips	15 tons.
16	Lucerne	.....	70	Maize	25 bushels.
15	Sorghum	10 tons ensilage.	25	Pumpkins and melons..	.....
6	Maize	7 ,, ,,	4	Potatoes	.....

An orchard, 10 acres in extent, and a vineyard of 5 acres have been planted, and the growing of plants for scents has been commenced. Dairying is carried on, the yield of milk for 1893 being 11,645 gallons. Instruction is given in the management of poultry and bees. The students are also taught to kill and dress sheep, carpentry and blacksmith's work, fencing, and mechanical trades. Three out-door lady students attended the lessons in apiculture during the year.

Murrumbidgee Experimental Farm.—This farm is situated near the town of Wagga Wagga, and although only recently established, about 9½ miles of boundary fencing have been erected, and the experimental paddock of about 50 acres has been enclosed with rabbit-proof wire netting; about 80 acres have also been laid out as orchards and vineyards, and several thousands of trees and vines planted. There is no natural water supply, but a large tank has been excavated. Experiments have been made with wheat (over 400 varieties having been sown to test their rust-resisting capacities), rye, barley (especially malting varieties), peas, turnips, potatoes, tobacco, and other crops. Seeds are sent from the farm for distribution amongst farmers in different localities, not a few of whom attended by special invitation at the farm on 1st December, 1894, to test the results of the experiments made in wheat culture.

Richmond River Experimental Farm.—This is situated at Wollongbar on the southern side of the road from Lismore to Ballina. Experiments are conducted with the view to determine the most suitable fodder plants for these districts; and many varieties of sugar-cane, some procured from Jamaica, as well as different semi-tropical and tropical plants and fruits have been planted in order to test their value and suitability.

Trial Stations.—Advantage has been taken of some of the Artesian Bores in the arid country between the Darling River and the Queensland Border to show what crops and trees can be grown in those districts by means of irrigation. Plantations of fruit and forest trees, sugar-cane, cereals, grasses, and potatoes, have been made at the following stations :—

Native Dog Bore	Belalic Bore	Coolabah Tank	Waddell Tank
Barringun Bore	Eugonia Bore	Byerock Tank	Moongulla Bore.

Plantations of forest trees and wattles have also been made at Otford, Moonbi, Bargo, Tomago, and the Sand-drift, Newcastle.

State Forest Nursery, Gosford.—At this establishment the propagation of plants, chiefly those suitable for street and avenue planting, and timber trees for putting out on forest reserves, is carried on. The total output from the Nursery of forest, fruit, and ornamental trees and plants has been :—

Reserves, plantations, and artesian bores	127,911
Schools and public bodies	46,547
Total..	174,458
The estimated number of plants and shrubs established at the Nursery, February, 1894, was :—
Open rooted plants and shrubs	400,000
Trees and shrubs in pots	23,000
Trees and shrubs in boxes	30,000
Total..	453,000

Classification of Hands Employed.—As it is of first importance to accurately classify the hands into their respective employments, it has been customary to subdivide works where more than one important industry is followed. Thus where Boot-making and Tanning are carried on in the same establishment, if both industries are large, they would be treated as separate works, so with Engineering and Joinery, Brewing and Cordial-making, &c.

For 1893, see note on page 490. ‖ Agricultural implement manufactories are not included under any of these heads. ¶ Iron and Brass Foundries and Machinery and Engineering are taken together, for though efforts have been made each year to distribute them into their separate divisions, such distribution has been only partially successful.  Accurate information not available prior to 1886. †† Saddlery: Only larger repairing shops included in 1886-93, but all included prior to 1886.

Establishments where more than one Industry is carried on.—When more than one kind of work is carried on in one establishment, it has frequently been found impossible to distinguish the number of hands engaged in the various industries; in such cases the total has been credited to the principal industry.

It is probable the figures are too high as ingredients other than tobacco leaf are used in the making of tobacco.

No. 12 the Municipalities were divided into two classes, Boroughs and Municipal Districts, although the name of "Municipality" is still common to both institutions. A borough shall, upon its first incorporation, contain an area of not more than 9 square miles with a population of not less than 1,000; a municipal district must not exceed 50 square miles, and shall contain a population of at least 500. The boundaries of each class of division must not overlap.

Sydney is classed as a Municipality, but is incorporated under a Special Act.

Aborigines.—The Aboriginal population was not included in the Census of 1861, while in 1871 and 1881 the wandering tribes were passed over, and only those who were civilized or in contact with Europeans were enumerated. It is probable that the numbers for these years were, approximately—in 1861, 15,000; in 1871, 12,000; and in 1881, 10,000.

Aborigines.—The Aborigines are not included for the years 1861 and 1891; but for 1871 and 1881, while the wandering Aborigines were passed over, those who were civilized or in communication with Europeans were enumerated, so that the totals for 1871 and 1881 include 983 and 1,643 Aborigines respectively. In the above table also those unspecified as to conjugal condition have been distributed by proportion amongst the other numbers.

(—) Denotes excess of Emigration.

Excess of Immigration.—It is believed that not a few persons leave New South Wales without their departure being recorded; the figures given, therefore, are somewhat in excess of the truth.

Chinese.—Under Act. 52 Vic., No. 4, passed in the year 1888, no Chinese, unless exempted by the Act, are allowed to enter New South Wales either by sea or land without the payment of a tax of £100 each. The exemptions are—Chinese who are British subjects by birth, who have been naturalised in New South Wales, or those who arrive on a special mission under the authority of the British or Chinese Governments, and members of crews of vessels who land in the performance of their duties. Naturalisation of Chinese in New South Wales is now prohibited by the Act. Chinese naturalised in other Colonies are not entitled to the right of British citizenship in New South Wales.

Religions of State-Assisted Immigrants.—The only classification of religions made by the Immigration authorities is that shown in the above table.

State-Assisted Immigration.—General State-assisted immigration ceased in the year 1887, but those who arrived under that system, and are still residing in New South Wales, may, under special regulations, send for their wives and families. Reference may be made to records relating to the arrival of immigrants since 1832, and copies of certificates of birth, &c., may be obtained by immigrants at the office of the Immigration Agent, Sydney.

Expenditure, 1893.—During 1893 the amount expended on State-assisted immigration, exclusive of office expenses, was £2,818. Of this sum the proportion paid by immigrants amounted to £363, making the net cost to the State £2,455. The amount of passage money required to be paid by each person is graduated according to age, and ranges from £1 for children 3 years and under 14 to £15 for married persons

Naturalisation Act.—The first Act empowering the Governor to grant letters of naturalisation in New South Wales was assented to in 1828 (9 Geo. IV, No. 6). The next important Act passed was 11 Vic., No. 39, as amended by 17 Vic., No. 8. This was repealed in 1876 in favour of the Act now in force, 39 Vic., No. 19. An alien who has resided in New South Wales for a term of not less than five years may apply to the Governor to be naturalised. Should a certificate of naturalisation be granted, the applicant must take the oath of allegiance prescribed by the Act. The Colonial Secretary is required to record all certificates of naturalisation, and to receive a fee of one pound for each certificate issued. A register of certificates of naturalisation that have been granted may be inspected upon payment of a fee of one shilling.

Chinese.—A clause in the Chinese Immigrants Regulation and Restriction Act of 1861 (25 Vic., No. 3) provided that certificates of naturalisation should not be granted to Chinese. The Act was, however, repealed on the 20th November, 1867, but since the date of the passing of the Chinese Restriction and Regulation Act of 1888 (52 Vic., No. 4), no certificates of naturalisation can be issued to Chinese in New South Wales.

Certificates of Naturalisation.—Certificates of naturalisation granted in other Colonies do not confer the right of citizenship in New South Wales.

Divorce.—Under Act 55 Vic., No. 37, assented to 9th May, 1892, and 56 Vic., No. 36 (13th June, 1893), the grounds on which Divorce may be granted have been largely extended, and to the causes previously existing, viz.:—Adultery since marriage on the part of the wife, and adultery and cruelty on the part of the husband, there have been added desertion, habitual drunkenness with cruelty and neglect, &c., in gaol under conviction, and violent assaults. This explanation accounts for the increase in the number of marriages dissolved. (See also note, Part VIII, "Law and Crime," page 603.)

Re-marriages.—The number of those persons who were divorced in New South Wales, and again married, cannot be separated in the above table, which shows the Re-marriages of persons who had been divorced either in New South Wales or elsewhere.

Inquests.—In all cases of violent and unnatural deaths, casualties by which death ensues, sudden deaths, persons found dead, persons dying in gaols, lock-ups, and hospitals, persons committing suicide, and persons executed in gaols, it is the duty of the Coroner of the district to cause an inquest to take place, if he have reasonable grounds to believe that death was caused by violent or unnatural means. In all cases of deaths in gaols inquests must be held. A Coroner is empowered to issue a warrant for the exhumation of a body, to summon jurors and witnesses, and to commit persons for trial who have been found guilty, by a jury, of murder or manslaughter. See also Notes, Part viii, "Law and Crime," and x, "Miscellaneous."

Magisterial Inquiries.—In a district where no Coroner has been appointed, or is unable to hold the usual inquest, a Magistrate may hold an inquiry; but, owing to the fact that he is not empowered to commit a suspected person for trial, he must terminate the inquiry, in all cases where facts are disclosed which point to the criminality of a person, and direct the Police to prosecute at the nearest Police Court.

Police Summonses.—The statement of summonses made by the Police differs from that obtained from the Magistrates' Courts. The apparent discrepancy is caused by all summons cases that the Police are partly instrumental in bringing before the Courts, being included in their returns, whether ultimately prosecuted by them or not. If this practice were not followed the record of Police business would be incomplete. The Clerks of Petty Sessions, however, include a considerable number of these cases in the returns of Magistrates' Courts, under the head of Private Summonses.

No. 4.—DEPARTMENTAL POLICE DISTRICTS, 1893.

Departmental Police Districts.—The Colony is divided into ten Departmental Police Districts, each of which is in charge of a Superintendent of Police; these districts are subdivided into sub-districts in charge of an Inspector or Sub-inspector of Police. The head-quarters and sub-districts and the police force attached to each district are shown in the following table. The numbers given for the Metropolitan District include 17 Detectives and 51 Constables in course of instruction, under orders for transfer, &c.

Gazetted Police Districts.—The Departmental Police Districts (Inspector-General's Office) are in no way identical with the gazetted Petty Sessions or Police Districts, as several of the latter are contained in one of the former, while the boundaries of each class are in no way common. The number of Petty Sessions or Police Districts during 1894 was 292.

No. 15.—MAGISTRATES' COURTS.—CASES brought before Magistrates' Courts during 1893.

Magistrates' Courts.—The Magistrates' Courts or Courts of Petty Sessions in the Metropolitan District are presided over by six Stipendiary Magistrates, and in the Country Districts Police Magistrates and Justices of the Peace adjudicate, the latter being honorary officers. The jurisdiction of Magistrates is limited to offences involving a penalty of six months imprisonment and under in all cases except those under the "Distillation Acts" and the "Customs Regulations Acts," when sentence of twelve months can be imposed, and two years for cases under the "Chinese Restriction and Regulation Act of 1888," and the "Children's Protection Act 1892." All persons, except those committed by Supreme Court Judges and Coroners, who are entered on the charge sheet of the police must be brought before Magistrates to be by them summarily dealt with or committed to a higher court.

Cumulative Sentences.—According to a circular of the Justice Department, dated February, 1894, Magistrates are not empowered to pass cumulative sentences on persons brought before the Court, but a prisoner, whilst undergoing a term of imprisonment on one charge, may be brought before the Court to answer for the committal of a second offence, and, if found guilty, can be sentenced to a further term of imprisonment, to commence upon the expiration of the sentence then being served.

Police Summonses.—For explanation of difference between returns of summonses by police, and similar summonses by Courts, see explanatory note, page 554.

No. 16.—MAGISTRATES' COURTS.—PERSONS brought before Magistrates' Courts during 1893.

Persons Committed for Trial.—The Returns of Courts of Quarter Sessions (page 568, Table No. 17), and the Central Criminal and Circuit Courts (page 571, Table No. 19), show 1,391 persons as committed for trial; after allowing for some persons who would not appear in the higher court returns for 1893, the number stated in the Magistrates' Courts (1533) is still too high, which is accounted for by the fact that some of the returns supplied apply to cases and not persons. The number of distinct cases as returned from Magistrates' Courts and the higher courts, however, very closely agree.

* Whipping.—Under the Criminal Law Amendment Act (46 Vic. No. 17), provision has been made for whipping as an additional punishment, chiefly for offences classed as wanton and unprovoked assaults and indecent exposure. The Court adjudicating must, however, consist of two or more Justices, one of whom shall be a Police or Stipendiary Magistrate. In the Metropolitan District the cases are decided before two Stipendiary Magistrates.

No. 17.—COURTS OF QUARTER SESSIONS.—CASES and PERSONS (Male and Female) brought before each Court, 1893.

Quarter Sessions.—The Courts of Quarter Sessions are presided over by Chairmen, who also perform the duties of Judges of the District Courts. There are seven Chairmen of Quarter Sessions, two of whom preside over the Courts in the Metropolitan and Hunter Districts, and one each in the following districts—Southern, South-western, Western, Northern, and North-western. Any offences, except capital ones, are within the jurisdiction of these Courts.

On the trial of prisoners at Quarter Sessions, the Chairman, at the request of the prisoner's counsel, must reserve questions of law for the consideration of the Supreme Court, or he may so act motu proprio.

Number of Cases.—The number of cases is given for both sexes in Table No. 18, but cannot be stated for each sex, as in several cases males and females are committed on the same charge.

No. 19.—CENTRAL CRIMINAL AND CIRCUIT COURTS—CASES and PERSONS (Male and Female) brought before each Court, 1893.

Central Criminal Court.—A Judge of the Supreme Court presides over the Central Criminal Court held at Sydney. All prisoners are tried by a jury of twelve. Under Act 55 Vic. No. 5, a person charged with an indictable offence is privileged but not compelled to give evidence in any court on hearing of such charge. An accused person may also make a statement at the close of the case for the prosecution without being liable to examination thereupon by counsel for the Crown, or by the Court. The verdict of the jury must be unanimous. If no verdict is returned the prisoner is liable to be tried over again by another jury.

Circuit Courts.—In addition to the supreme, civil, and criminal sittings of the Court held in Sydney, the Judges hold Courts called Circuit Courts, for dealing with the more serious class of criminal cases, especially those in which the capital penalty is involved, and for hearing civil causes at certain circuit towns.

Extradition Act, 1870 (Imperial Statute).—This Act provides for the surrender to Foreign States of persons accused or convicted of certain crimes within the jurisdiction of such States, and for the trial of criminals surrendered to the British Dominions. Treaties of Extradition for the mutual surrender of fugitive criminals exist between Her Majesty's Government and the Governments of France, Germany, Austria-Hungary, Brazil, Spain, Italy, Belgium, The Netherlands, Denmark, Sweden and Norway, Switzerland, Hayti, and the United States of America. In proceedings under this Act the fugitive is brought before the Governor, who hears evidence on oath and, if satisfied that the person is liable to be extradited makes an order to that effect.

Fugitive Offenders Act, 1881 (Imperial Statute).—Provision is made in this Act for the surrender from the United Kingdom to a British possession, or vice versa, or from one British possession to another, of fugitives charged with the commission of any offence which is, in the part of Her Majesty's Dominions where it was committed, punishable by imprisonment with hard labour for twelve months or more, or by some greater punishment. Persons apprehended under this Act are dealt with at a Magistrates' Court, and are not included in the above table.

No. 25.—DISTINCT PERSONS Committed to Gaol under Sentence DURING 1893, Distinguishing the NUMBER Convicted ONCE, TWICE, &c.

Licenses (Ticket of Leave).—See explanatory note, page 580.

First Offenders' Probation Act of 1894 (57 Vic. No. 23).—Under the provisions of this Act a person, convicted on the first offence, may be set at liberty on certain conditions instead of being sent to prison. Although the sentence is to be passed in the usual form, the Court has power to suspend its execution, upon the offender entering into a recognizance, with or without sureties, for his good behaviour, for a period of not less than twelve months. The offender is examined for the purpose of future identification, and must report himself to the police at least once in every three months. Should he fail to do so, or seriously misconduct himself during the period of probation, he is liable to be arrested, the recognizance forfeited, and committed to prison to complete his sentence. If, however, his conduct has been satisfactory, he shall be discharged from the sentence and the conviction for which it was imposed shall not be brought against him on any subsequent occasion.

No. 30.—PERSONS received into Gaols UNDER SENTENCE (counted once every time they were received), and TERMS of IMPRISONMENT, 1893.

Comptroller-General of Prisons.—Under Act 37 Vic. No. 14, the office of Comptroller-General of Prisons was established, and prison regulations are enforced under the Prisons Regulations Act of 1840 (4 Vic. No. 29).

Terms of Imprisonment.—The terms of imprisonment for the several offences are defined in the Criminal Law Amendment Act of 1883 (46 Vic. No. 17) and the Criminal Law and Evidence Amendment Act of 1891 (55 Vic. No. 5).

Remission of Sentences.—Prisoners, by continuous good conduct and industry, become eligible for a remission of sentence, in proportion to the term served by them, in accordance with the following scale:—In cases of cumulative sentences, the united period shall be deemed the term of sentence. Sentences not exceeding five years, a service of five-sixths; sentences beyond five, but not exceeding ten years, a service of four-fifths; sentences of more than ten years, a service of three-fourths of the term, except in sentences commuted from capital convictions, and prisoners serving sentences not exceeding twelve months. Prisoners under such sentences, however, are not debarred from having the circumstances of their cases taken into consideration.

Licenses—Ticket of Leave.—Under section 409 of the Criminal Law Amendment Act, the Governor may at any time, conditionally upon an offender under sentence giving security by recognisance for good behaviour as shall seem meet, grant a written license for him to be at large within specified limits for the unexpired portion of the sentence, and subject to conditions prescribed the sentence shall be suspended.

No. 32.—CLASSIFICATION of SENTENCES of persons (counted once every time they were received) committed to Gaol under Sentence during 1893.

Penal Servitude.—Penal servitude is not awarded if the term of imprisonment is less than three years. In the case of male prisoners it is taken to mean hard labour on the roads or other public works, and for female prisoners hard labour in gaol. This punishment is practically the same as that of hard labour.

Hard Labour.—Prisoners under sentence of hard labour are, after examination by the Medical Officer, placed to work at occupations which the gaol authorities consider come within the meaning of the sentence.

Without Labour (Imprisonment only).—Prisoners undergoing a sentence of imprisonment without labour are treated differently to others, and, if they entirely maintain and clothe themselves, are exempted from any work; otherwise they contribute to their own support by performing such labour as may be provided.

Sentences to Irons.—Under section 405 Criminal Law Amendment Act a prisoner who has been convicted of a felony attended with violence to the person, or committed by the offender when armed, or by means of any threat, is liable to be kept in irons for any portion, not exceeding the first three years, of his term of punishment.

Persons executed.—Five persons suffered the extreme penalty of the law during 1893, (Table No. 36, page 589), but as one was convicted in the previous year 4 of those who were executed only appear in the above Table.

No. 33.—PRISONERS in CONFINEMENT on the 31st December, 1893.

Principal and Minor Gaols.—These terms are Departmental, the only difference between the two classes of institutions being that the former are larger and more important, and have greater facilities for the employment of prisoners sentenced to hard labour.

Police Gaols.—These are small lock-ups which have been established for short-sentenced prisoners and persons awaiting trial. The buildings belong to the Department of the Inspector-General of Police, but the Comptroller-General of Prisons occupies a portion for the retention of the above class of persons. The gaolers are police constables, but each receives a nominal salary from the Comptroller-General of Prisons' Department.

Awaiting Trial.—Persons awaiting trial are allowed to see their legal adviser, and others who may visit them, in reference to their trial. It is not required that they should wear prison clothing, and many other privileges, consistent with safe custody, are allowed.

Under Examination.—Persons under examination are not allowed any communication in the prison, except with their legal advisers, unless specially sanctioned by the Justice conducting the examination.

Debtors.—Debtors are not required to wear prison clothing, nor to perform work, and are treated in separate wards according to rules made by the Judges of the Supreme Court.

Lunatics.—Lunatics of the Criminal class when placed in Gaol are kept in separate wards, under the supervision of the Gaol Surgeon. They are generally transferred to the Hospital for Criminal Insane, at Parramatta, but in some cases the prisoners are detained in the observation wards of the ordinary gaols. For number in confinement at this institution, as well as in ordinary gaols, see Part IX, "Education, Religion, and Charities."

No. 34.—EMPLOYED and UNEMPLOYED Prisoners in Gaols on the 31st December, 1893.

Trial Bay Prison and Breakwater.—Prisoners under sentences to penal servitude, or to hard labour on the roads and public works, or to imprisonment with hard labour, become eligible for employment upon the public works at Trial Bay Prison under the following conditions, viz. :—Prisoners under sentences from three to five years, who have not been punished for misconduct within the previous six months, and favourably recommended by the Gaolers, at a period, twelve months before they would become eligible for discharge under the ordinary remission regulations, and in anticipation of such discharge; in sentences of five to ten years similarly at a period of eighteen months anterior to discharge; in sentences of ten years and upwards at a period of two years anterior to discharge. The Breakwater now under construction is being supervised by Officers of the Public Works Department, and the prisoners engaged in work, who are entirely under the control of the Comptroller-General of Prisons, receive small monetary remuneration, as well as being supplied with rations, and clothing which is not of the prison pattern.

Prisoners under Sentence.—Distinct persons convicted during the year have been added to those prisoners under sentence whose terms had not expired at close of the previous year.

Gaol Punishments.—A Visiting Justice is appointed under Act 4 Vic. No. 29 to visit each Gaol. He is empowered to hear and determine all complaints which may be made against a prisoner of disobeying the rules of the Gaol, or of having committed any offence, and may pass a sentence of confinement in a solitary cell for a term not exceeding seven days.—In the case of repeated offences, a charge made before two or more Justices of the Peace renders the prisoner liable to a sentence of close confinement for one month, and if the offence has been committed by a prisoner convicted of felony, or under sentence of hard labour, a punishment of personal correction may be awarded.

No. 41.—LOCAL OPTION Vote, taken February, 1894.

Local Option.—Under the provisions of the Licensing Act of 1882 (45 Vic. No. 14), as amended by the Licensing Act of 1883 (46 Vic. No. 24), a local option vote is taken every three years in every Municipality, or Ward of a Municipality, at the election for Aldermen, in which the ratepayers may vote either "Yes" or "No" on two questions:—(1) Whether any new publicans' licenses shall be granted during the ensuing three years in that Municipality or Ward, and (2) Whether any removals of publicans' licenses shall be allowed within the same period. It is necessary that there shall be a majority of over eleven-twentieths of the votes polled to make the vote operative in the negative. At the polls that have hitherto been taken only a small proportion of the voters have exercised their local option votes. Although the local option vote is taken once in three years in every Municipality or Ward of a Municipality, the year when it is taken is not the same in all. The following table shows those Municipalities and Wards where the vote was taken in 1894:—

No. 42.—LICENSES Current during 1893, under Act 45 Vic. No. 14, as amended by Act 46 Vic. No. 24—1892-3.

Licensing Districts.—The Colony is divided into Licensing Districts, which are proclaimed by publication in the Gazette, and in each of which a Licensing Court has jurisdiction. At the close of 1893, 113 of these districts had been so proclaimed.

Metropolitan Licensing Court.—The Stipendiary Magistrates for the time being, and such other person or persons as the Governor may appoint, not to exceed seven in all, of whom three form a quorum, constitute the Metropolitan Licensing Court. There are two places of sitting, viz., the Central and Water Police Courts.

Country Licensing Courts.—In the Country Districts the Court is composed of three members, one being termed the "official," and the other two "appointed" members. The official member is the Police Magistrate resident within or nearest to the district, if residing within 10 miles of the Court House. The appointed members only hold office for a limited time, but may be reappointed. With a few exceptions there is only one place of sitting in each District, and that is generally held at the town from which the District is named.

Auctioneers' Licenses.—Number of General Licenses issued, 1893 (available for all parts of New South Wales), 222; Annual License Fee, £15. Number of District Licenses issued, 1893 (available only within the Police District where granted) 777; Annual License Fee, £2. Total amount collected, 1893, £4,578. District Licenses are not issued within the Metropolitan Police District.

Auctioneers' Licenses—City Council.—Under Act 43 Vic. No. 3 (clause 215) all sums paid to the Colonial Treasurer for all auctioneers' licenses issued under certificates granted by any Court of Petty Sessions held within the city are paid over by him to the Council, and form part of the City Fund. Under the same Act (clause 216) the Council may grant licenses to persons for hawking fish, vegetables, and other articles, but this power is not exercised.

All classes of Licenses.—In addition to the licenses enumerated there are Hawkers', Pawnbrokers', Slaughtering, Coach, Timber, Gunpowder, and for the sale of tobacco, cigars, and cigarettes, as well as a few minor licenses. The total revenue received from all licenses during 1893 was £137,916.

No. 47.—DISTRICT COURTS—Nature of Causes, 1893.

District Courts.—The Colony is divided for District Court purposes into six districts, and the Courts are presided over by Judges appointed by the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, upon the recommendation of the Minister of Justice. They are held at least twice during the year, at the places directed by the Governor-in-Council, on dates appointed by the Judges of the respective districts. The jurisdiction of these Courts is purely civil, and is quite distinct from that exercised by the District Court Judges when acting as Chairmen of Quarter Sessions. District Courts have no jurisdiction in actions where the amount claimed exceeds £200, or where the title of land or the validity of any devise, bequest, or limitation under a will or settlement, shall be in question, nor in actions for seduction; but they are empowered (37 Vic. No. 13) to hear appeals from decisions in Mining Wardens' Courts.

Appeals and New Trial Motions.—During 1893 there were 9 appeals from the judgments of these Courts, of which 5 were confirmed and 4 reversed. There were also 15 motions for new trials, 4 of which were granted. The right of appeal can only be exercised in causes in which the amount claimed exceeds £10, and must be made either on points of law or in respect to the admission or rejection of evidence.

Causes tried by Jury.—Of the 5,839 causes heard during 1893, only 96 were tried by Jury. When the amount in dispute exceeds £20 either of the parties may, by giving notice to the Registrar of the Court, have a Jury summoned.

No. 49.—SUPREME and CIRCUIT COURTS—CAUSES DECIDED.

Supreme and Circuit Courts.—All actions at law, all civil issues of fact, all damages, and all sums of money recoverable, are assessed and computed, before one or more Judges, by a jury of four persons, unless application is made by and granted to either party to the suit for a jury of twelve.

Terms.—There are four Terms during each year, the dates of which are fixed by the Judges, as are also the days the Sittings commence, the duration of Vacations, and the dates for holding Circuits.

Judges.—There are seven Judges attached to the Supreme Court, the Chief Justice, and the six Puisne Judges, who hear and determine matters in Common Law, Equity, Probate, Divorce and Matrimonial Causes, Vice-Admiralty, and Bankruptcy. A Judge can only be removed from office upon the Address of both Houses of Legislature. Pensions are demandable by the Judges upon permanent disability or infirmity or after fifteen years' service. The amount of such pensions, as well as their salaries, are secured and regulated by various Acts.

Jurors.—Common jurors are liable to be summoned for the Criminal Courts once a year only, and Special jurors are liable, in addition, to be called upon to serve once for the Civil Courts. The qualifications for the Common jury are a yearly income of at least £30, or property to the value of £300. For the Special jury owners or tenants of property of a yearly value of not less than £100, Justices of the Peace, bankers, merchants, and some others of specified occupations are qualified. By 55 Vic. No. 5 (Criminal Law and Evidence Amendment Act) Justices of the Peace are no longer exempt from serving as jurors at General or Quarter Sessions, nor are those persons whose names are on the Special Jury List.

No. 50.—SUPREME COURT—Common Law and Equity, 1884–1893.

Common Law.—Under Act 9 George IV, the Supreme Court of New South Wales was given jurisdiction in all cases whatsoever as fully and amply as the Courts of King's Bench, Common Pleas, and Exchequer had in England, and it was to be at all times a Court of Oyer and Terminer and General Gaol Delivery, and the Judges were given the same jurisdiction and authority as the Judges of those three Courts in England.

Equity.—The same Act constituted the Supreme Court of New South Wales a Court of Equity, and empowered it to perform all things necessary to such equitable jurisdiction as the Lord Chancellor can in England. The Equity Act, 1880, and subsequent Acts, regulate its practice and procedure.

No. 51.—SUPREME COURT FEES—Prothonotary and Master in Equity, 1884–1893.

Prothonotary.—The Common Law Department of the Supreme Court is placed in charge of the Prothonotary, who is also Registrar of the Divorce and Vice-Admiralty Courts. His principal duties are to tax all costs in actions, to have charge of records and custody of exhibits, and to keep a Register of Attorneys. The duties arising under the various Acts regulating the printing and publication of newspapers also belong to the office of the Prothonotary.

Master in Equity.—The office of Master in Equity in New South Wales combines the duties of "Accountant General," "Registrar," "Head of the Records and Writ office," and of "Taxing Officer," as well as those performed in England by the Judges in Chambers through their chief clerks.

Master in Lunacy.—By the passing of Act 42 Vic. No. 7, Commissions de Lunatico Inquirendo were abolished and the Supreme Court, or a Judge thereof, on application to his satisfaction, is empowered to make declarations in lieu thereof. The same statute enacted that the Master in Equity for the time being should be Master in Lunacy, and it confers upon him large powers of management. For further particulars and transactions, 1884-93, see Part IX, "Education, Religion, and Charities."

Sheriff.—The duties of the Sheriff comprise the provision of everything necessary for the preservation of order in the Supreme Court. He must be present personally or by deputy at all Jury Courts throughout the Colony. He executes all process in Supreme Court writs, warrants of estreat, &c., and has charge of all imprisoned debtors and prisoners, summons all juries, and makes the arrangements necessary for the execution of prisoners sentenced to death.

No. 52.—SUPREME COURT—DIVORCE and MATRIMONIAL CAUSES, 1873-93.

Divorce.—Prior to the passing of the Matrimonial Causes Act of 1873 (36 Vic. No. 9), the Supreme Court of N.S.W. had no jurisdiction in divorce. The existing Act (55 Vic. No. 37) was assented to on the 9th May, 1892, but did not come into force, owing to an informality, till the 6th August. During 1893 an amending Act (56 Vic. No. 36) was attached. The chief grounds for divorce under the old Act were adultery since marriage on the part of the wife, and adultery and cruelty on the part of the husband. In addition to the foregoing causes, petitions for divorce can now be granted on the following grounds:—Husband v. Wife—Desertion for not less than three years; habitual drunkenness for a similar period; being imprisoned under a sentence of three years or upwards; attempt to murder or inflict grievous bodily harm, or repeated assaults on him within one year previously. Wife v. Husband.—Adultery, provided that at the time of the institution of the suit the husband is domiciled in New South Wales; desertion for not less than three years; habitual drunkenness for the same period; being imprisoned for three years or upwards, or having within five years undergone various sentences amounting in all to not less than three years; attempt to murder or assault with intent to inflict grievous bodily harm, or repeated assaults within one year previously. To entitle either party to seek relief on any one of these grounds he or she must have been domiciled in the Colony at the time of instituting the suit for three years and upwards, and should not have resorted to the Colony for the purpose of the suit. When a wife seeks for a decree on the ground of three years desertion, if she was domiciled in New South Wales when the desertion commenced, she shall not be deemed to have lost her domicile by reason of her husband having thereafter acquired a foreign domicile.

Decrees nisi—Of the decrees nisi granted during 1893 and previous years, 92 were made absolute in 1894, leaving 119 on which the decrees have not been made absolute. After a decree nisi has been granted, it can be made absolute at any time subsequent to the date fixed by the Court for that purpose. No. 54.—SUPREME COURT—Probates and Letters of Administration.

Probate, &c.—By the Probate Act 54 Vic. No. 25, the jurisdiction previously vested in the Primary Judge in Equity was transferred to the Supreme Court and its Probate Jurisdiction, and such Judge as might be appointed Probate Judge. The duties performed by the Prothonotary and Ecclesiastical Clerk were at the same time transferred to the Registrar of Probates. Prior to the passing of this Act all applications for probate and letters of administration (except where the gross amount of the estate did not exceed £100) were made in open Court, and also applications to pass accounts of executors or administrators. Under the present Act the Registrar grants probate and letters of administration where the estate does not exceed £1,000 in value, it being only necessary to apply in open Court in cases beyond that amount. Estates under £200 in value do not pay any stamp duty.

The figures from the Probate Court and Stamp Duties Department (see Part IV, "Accumulation") relating to transactions in the estates of deceased persons do not agree. The Court returns the gross value of the estates, and includes those estates which, after investigation, are found not to be subject to duty. The number of petitions is also swollen by probates on some estates being taken out a second time. The amount given by the Stamp Duties Department represents the net value of the estates, and only those estates subject to duty appear in the returns.

No. 55.—SUPREME COURT—Curator of Intestate Estates.

Curator of Intestate Estates.—This officer is appointed by the Supreme Court under Act 54 Vic. No. 25. He is empowered to apply for an order to collect the estate of any deceased person leaving real and personal estate who shall have died intestate, and leaving no widow or next of kin resident within the jurisdiction of the Court, or when the person shall have died testate but leaving no executor, or no executor willing and capable of acting in execution of his will, and in a few other instances. After paying all proved and allowed claims, balances in the hands of the Curator are invested by him either in Government Debentures or at fixed deposit, and if not claimed within six years, are paid over to the Colonial Treasurer for the public service of the Colony. A rightful claimant may afterwards, however, obtain payment thereof, but without interest from the date of payment to the Treasury.

No. 56.—SUPREME COURT—BANKRUPTCY—Transactions during the year 1893.

Bankruptcy Act.—Under the existing Act (51 Vic. No. 19), which was passed in 1887, the law relating to Insolvency and Bankruptcy was amended and consolidated. During July, 1888, an amendment (52 Vic. No. 11) was attached. The provisions of the present statute are of a more stringent nature than those of the previous Act. The law is administered by a Judge in Bankruptcy, who acts in place of the Chief Commissioner of Insolvent Estates appointed under the old Act. Under the present Act official assignees are appointed, who are entitled to receive 5 per cent. commission on the amount realized, and creditors' trustees may be appointed at a fixed scale of remuneration to act in conjunction with them.

A barrister, who has been in practice as such for five years, having caused himself to be disbarred, can, under Act 55 Vic. No. 31, be admitted as a solicitor without examination. Under the provisions of the same Act a solicitor is competent to appear, and has the right of audience in all Courts in New South Wales. The Court can suspend or remove from the roll of solicitors any person who, in its opinion, shall have been guilty of misconduct or malpractice.

No. 61.—PATENTS—Applications for Letters Patent and Certificates of Provisional Protection Registered (under Act 51 Vic. No. 3) during 1893.

Letters Patent.—The first Patent Act (16 Vic. No. 24) was passed in 1852, but did not come into operation till 10th January, 1854. It was amended in 1879 (42 Vic. No. 27) and again in 1887 (51 Vic. No. 3). Under the provisions of the last-mentioned Act the office of Examiner of Patents was created and fees for complete Letters Patent were reduced to £5, and provision was then made for the issue of Certificates of Provisional Protection on payment of a fee of £2, which may, if application be made within twelve months from granting, be converted into an application for a Patent on the payment of an additional £3.

Duration and Assignment of Patents.—The period for which Letters Patent remain in force varies from seven to fourteen years, generally for the latter period; a Certificate of Provisional Protection can, however, only be granted for twelve months from date of issue. A patent granted in New South Wales only protects the holder or holders within the boundaries of that Colony. Letters Patent and Certificates may be assigned, and the grantee of Letters Patent may issue licenses for the manufacture or use of his invention. All assignments or licenses must be registered by the Examiner, or they become null and void.

No. 63.—COPYRIGHT.—Registrations effected from 1889 to 1893.

The Copyright Act (42 Vic., No. 20) was passed in May, 1879, and became law on the first of the following July.—Under the International Copyright Act, 1886 (49 and 50 Vic., clause 33), the greater part of the body of Imperial Copyright law, together with the Copyright Convention of Berne, is made reciprocally applicable to Great Britain and to the countries that are parties to the Convention with their respective colonies, namely:—Great Britain, France, Germany, Italy, Spain, Switzerland, Luxembourg, Monaco, Hayti, Belgium, Montenegro, and Tunis, so that it is now possible for Colonial Copyright works, to which the law applies, to receive international protection. The same Act places Colonial Copyright in literary works upon the same footing as Imperial Copyright works, that is to say, a work first published in a Colony is now capable of receiving protection throughout the British dominions. The total registrations under the Act to end of 1893 were 1,911, the receipts amounted to £566, and the disbursements (salaries), £4,445.

Duration of Copyright.—Books, for the natural life of the author and for 7 years after his death, or for 42 years from first publication, whichever period may be the longer; paintings, drawings, sculpture, and engravings, for 14 years; photographs, 3 years; articles composed wholly or chiefly of metal, wood, stone, cement, glass, earthenware, ivory, bone, and similar substances, 3 years; paperhangings, carpets, oilcloths, and all kinds of textile and woven articles, 2 years. To obtain the benefits of the Act every article must bear the word "Registered," together with the name of the proprietor and the date of registration.

No. 64.—The Trades Disputes Conciliation and Arbitration Act, 1892 (Act 55 Vic. No. 29).

THIS Act was the outcome of an inquiry into the subject of industrial crises or strikes by a Royal Commission appointed November, 1890. It supplies State machinery for the settlement of industrial disputes upon the basis of conciliation or compromise, in the first instance, and failing that by arbitration. Under this Act the Colony is treated as one Industrial District, and two separate Councils, the Council of Conciliation and the Council of Arbitration, have been appointed, the former consisting of eighteen and the latter of three members, who hold office for a term of two years, but can be reappointed. Nine members of the Council of Conciliation and one member of the Council of Arbitration are elected by the organisations, or a majority of the organisations, representing the interests of employers, and the organisations, or the majority of the organisations, representing the employés, elect a similar number. The President of the Council of Arbitration is appointed by the Governor and Executive Council on the recommendation of the other two members. The members of the Council of Arbitration receive salaries in addition to fees, but the members of the Council of Conciliation are paid by fees only. The Act continues in force for four years from 31st March, 1892, and its regulations are carried out by an officer designated the Clerk of Awards. Both Councils are invested with judicial powers to enforce the attendance of witnesses. Since the Act came into operation, only one case has been brought before the Council of Conciliation, and one case before the Court of Arbitration.

No. 6.—STATE SCHOOLS—Schools, Teachers, Enrolment of Pupils, 1889–93.

Primary Schools.—Prior to the passing of the Public Instruction Act (43 Vic. No. 23), which came into force on 1st May, 1880, the administration of primary schools was entrusted to a Council of Education, and two classes of schools, public and denominational, existed side by side, each receiving support from the State funds; the buildings belonging to the latter, however, were built and equipped by the several denominations. This Act provided that State aid to denominational schools should cease at the end of 1882, and that the instruction imparted at Public Schools should be absolutely unsectarian. "Secular instruction" is defined by the Act as including "general religious teaching as distinguished from dogmatical or polemical theology.

Religious Instruction.—Provision is made for the clergymen or other religious teachers of any denomination to give religious instruction to the pupils belonging to their persuasion at specified hours, and separate class rooms are generally provided for that purpose.

Compulsory Attendance.—Under Clause 20 of the Act, it is obligatory upon the parents or guardians of all children, between the ages of 6 and 14 years (unless just cause of exemption can be shown), to cause such children to attend school for a period of not less than 70 days in each half-year.

Minimum Age.—In accordance with a Ministerial minute, a circular was issued to all Public School teachers, 10th January, 1894, placing the minimum age at which children could be admitted to these schools at 6 years, excepting those who had already been enrolled. The minimum was again reduced to 5 years by another Ministerial minute, September, 1894.

School Fees.—Fees at the rate of 3d. per scholar are charged, the maximum being 1s. for one family. Where inability to pay the fees is shown children are admitted free.

SCHOOL DISTRICTS, 1893.

School Districts.—The Colony is divided into 10 school districts, each being in charge of a District Inspector, who is assisted by 2 or more Inspectors. Each school is inspected once a year; in many cases a second inspection is made; and the inspections occupy from one day to three weeks, according to the size of the school. The number of Departments given in Table No. 7 is 6 more than shown in the following Table. The 5 High Schools and the Public School at Lord Howe Island are included in the former, but they do not come within the charge of any District Inspector.

The Board's duties are to visit and report on schools placed under its supervision, to suspend a teacher in certain cases, and to report the names of persons who refuse to educate their children. At the end of 1893, 47 ladies held seats on these Boards.

No. 7.—STATE SCHOOLS.—Schools and Departments in operation, 1893.

Schools and Departments, 1893.—The number of schools and departments in operation, 1893, does not correspond with the number open at the close of 1893 (2,437 and 2,660 respectively); 78 new schools were established, 10 schools were re-opened, 70 schools in operation during 1892 do not appear on the list of those open 1893, and 83 of those in operation during 1893 were closed before the last quarter of that year. The classification of a large number of schools was changed. 27 Provisional and 2 Half-time Schools were raised to the rank of Public Schools, whilst 34 Public and 32 Provisional Schools were reduced to Half-time or House-to-house Schools. With few exceptions all Schools below Class IV are "Mixed Schools," the boys, girls, and infants not being separated into different departments.

At the end of 1893 there were 95 Public Schools of Classes I to V, comprising 241 Departments, classed as "Superior" Public Schools. In these schools instruction is given to the fifth class, in Latin and French and other subjects prescribed for the Senior and Junior Examinations.

Public School Cadet Corps.—In connection with the State Schools, and inclusive of those attached to Roman Catholic Schools within the Metropolis, there were, at the end of 1893, 147 Cadet Corps, with an enrolment of 4,179 cadets, under the control of six officers attached to the Department of Public Instruction. The corps, previously known as Senior Cadets, and comprising infantry, cavalry, artillery, and ambulance corps, were transferred to the Military Department during 1893, and affiliated with certain of the partially paid regiments. The Cadet Vote for 1893 was £5,869, as against £11,818 for 1892, a reduction of more than 50 per cent., so that severe retrenchment had to be exercised, which operated against the Force generally, and no new corps were formed during the year.

Penny Savings' Banks.—These are established in connection with the State Schools. At the end of 1893 Savings' Banks were in operation at 629 schools, with an estimated number of 37,000 depositors, having £6,079 to their credit. Deposits as collected are placed in the Post Office Savings' Bank to the credit of the School Bank. As soon as the amount at the credit of an individual depositor reaches £1, a separate account is opened in the child's own name.

No. 13.—UNIVERSITY of Sydney—Scholarships and Exhibitions, 1893.

Scholarships and Exhibitions.—These have been founded chiefly by private benefactors as rewards for proficiency and for the purpose of placing the advantages of a University education within the reach of students, who might, through the want of financial means, be excluded from a participation in them. They are awarded only when candidates exhibit a degree of proficiency satisfactory to the Examiners. No undergraduate may hold more than two scholarships at one time. Scholars are required to proceed with their studies in the respective Faculties in which their scholarships are awarded.

No. 14.—UNIVERSITY OF SYDNEY.—Bursaries, 1893.

Bursaries.—Bursaries are only conferred when satisfactory proof is produced that the means of the candidate, or of his parents or guardians, are insufficient to enable him to attend the University without such assistance. There are fourteen at the disposal of the University. These have all been created (on the initiation of the late Dr. Badham, when Professor of Classics) by private foundations, at a cost of £1,000 each, together with a margin in some cases to ensure prescribed annual awards amounting to £50. They are helped, on the part of the Senate, by an accompanying exemption from all lecture fees and the fee for matriculation. Women are eligible for not more than one half of the five bursaries, founded in 1881, by Mr. Thomas Walker, of Yaralla, Concord.

Public School Bursaries.—Thirty other bursaries have been created by the Government in connection with the Public School system, but the University is not concerned in their award, although the Senate has conceded to the holders a similar exemption from fees.

No. 17.—TECHNICAL EDUCATION.—Subjects Taught, 1893.

Technical Education.—Classes were first established at the Sydney Mechanics' School of Arts in 1873. In 1878 a sum of £2,000 was granted by Parliament for the organisation of the Technical College, and for five years the classes were carried on at the institution named. In 1883 a Board was appointed by Government to take over the management, but towards the end of 1889 the Board was dissolved, and the Technical Colleges were placed under the control of the Minister of Public Instruction. In January, 1892, the new Technical College at Ultimo was opened to students.

Marriages may be performed by District Registrars.—In addition to registered Ministers of Religion, District Registrars appointed by the Government in all large towns for the registration of Births, Marriages, and Deaths may perform the Marriage ceremony, conditionally that the persons about to be married declare that they conscientiously object to be married by a Minister of Religion.

CHURCH OF ENGLAND.

Jurisdiction.—The first clergyman of the Church of England landed in Sydney with the "First Fleet" in 1788. In 1825 an "Archdeacon of Australia" was appointed within the jurisdiction of the Bishop of Calcutta. The first "Bishop of Australia" was consecrated in 1836, and the one diocese included Tasmania and New Zealand. In 1847 the Province of New South Wales was founded, and the title of Metropolitan was conferred on the Bishop of Sydney, who in 1872 was created Primate of the Dioceses in Australia and Tasmania.

Ecclesiastical Divisions.—The clergy resident in certain defined districts of each diocese are united for various practical purposes into Archidiaconal Districts and Ruridecanal Chapters, presided over by an Archdeacon and a Rural Dean respectively, who are appointed by and derive their authority from the Bishop of the diocese.

Diocesan Synods.—In 1886 a conference of Bishops of the Dioceses in New South Wales, together with Clerical and Lay Representatives from each Diocese, was held for the purpose of drawing up Constitutions for the management and good government of the Church, and, legislative sanction having been obtained, the Bishop of Sydney summoned the first Synod of the Diocese of Sydney to meet in December the same year. Synods meet annually in each Diocese, and exist for three years. Each clergyman licensed to a separate cure of souls has a seat in the Synod, and each parish elects two, or in the case of more than 50 persons attending and voting, three Lay Representatives. The Bishop of the Diocese, or, in his absence, a Commissary appointed by him, is President ex officio, and the Rules and Practice of the Legislative Council, as far as they can be applied, are observed.

Provincial and General Synods.—Each Diocesan Synod elects from its members an equal number of Clerical and Lay Members to the Provincial Synod of New South Wales, which meets once in three years, and also Clerical and Lay Representatives to the General Synod of the Dioceses of Australia and Tasmania, which meets once in five years under the presidency of the Bishop of Sydney as Primate.

CHURCH PROPERTY.

Church of England Property Incorporation Act, 1881 (45 Vic.)—This Act provides for the creation of corporate bodies of Trustees in which property belonging to the Church of England may be vested. Under this Act Church of England Property Trusts for different dioceses have been constituted, and are entitled to hold, on behalf of the Church, all real and personal property which may be assigned to it by grant, will, or otherwise.

Sydney Bishopric and Church Property Act, 1887 (50 Vic.)—Under this Act the Synod of the Diocese of Sydney is empowered by rule or ordinance to direct the sale or lease of any lands, churches, schools, or other buildings where it has become impossible or inexpedient to carry out the particular purpose for which they were by consecration or express trust devoted.

Church of England Property Act, 1889 (52 Vic.)—Applies to the Colony generally, and gives power to the Synod of each Diocese to effect mortgages of lands and buildings, other than consecrated churches, for the purpose of obtaining money for giving effect to the trusts attached to the same, and to let lands, &c., on building, mining, or occupation leases for the purpose of obtaining income therefrom.

Moore Theological College.—This college was founded in 1856. It was originally carried on at Liverpool, but in 1889 it was decided to transfer the college to Sydney. New buildings, erected close to St. Paul's (affiliated) College and the University, were opened August, 1891. The course of study extends over two years, except for University graduates, from whom only one year's residence is required. Married students are permitted to be non-resident. A certificate is granted on passing the final examination satisfactorily. Intending students must produce testimonial of fitness from two clergymen or certificate from a Bishop stating his willingness to receive him as a candidate for Holy Orders.

ROMAN CATHOLIC.

Jurisdiction.—The Roman Catholic population of Australia was, until 1834, under the jurisdiction of the Bishop of Mauritius, but in that year Sydney was constituted a See, which included within its jurisdiction the whole of Australia and Tasmania, and the Bishop of which bore the title of Vicar-Apostolic of New Holland. In 1842 Pope Gregory XVI gave a canonical form to Church government by establishing a Hierarchy, raising the Vicar-Apostolic to the rank of Archbishop, with Bishops of Hobart and Adelaide as Suffragans. The Colony of New South Wales forms the Province of Sydney, which has been from time to time subdivided, and now comprises an Archdiocese and six Dioceses. In 1885 the occupant of the Archiepiscopal See was created a Cardinal. He is assisted by a Bishop Auxiliary.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH OF NEW SOUTH WALES.

Organisation.—The Colony of New South Wales is divided into fourteen Presbyteries, each comprising a number of separate charges, to each of which a Minister is appointed. The management of the affairs of the Church is controlled by a General Assembly, which sits annually, and consists of Ministers and Elders from the Charges within the different Presbyteries. It is presided over by a Moderator, who is elected by the Presbyteries, which also nominate representatives to the Federal Assembly. The first Assembly of the Presbyterian Church of New South Wales was held in 1865.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH OF NEW SOUTH WALES—continued.

Church Property.—A Church Trusts Bill has been passed by a majority of Presbyteries and by two Assemblies. The requisite notice has been given for the introduction of a measure of such a character into Parliament, under which the holding and dealing with properties belonging to the Presbyterian Church of New South Wales will be regulated. The Church Property Law and Documents Committee, appointed by the General Assembly, keeps a Register of all Church properties and causes Trustees to be gazetted. In 1893 the numbers of properties and Trustees so gazetted were 55 and 225 respectively. The value of Church Property given in the adjoining table is only approximate, the returns forwarded by many charges being incomplete :—

WESLEYAN METHODIST CHURCH.

Constitution.—A separate and independent constitution was given to the Wesleyan Methodists in Australia in 1884 by the English Conference, which derives its constitution from a Deed Poll of 28th February, 1784, executed and enrolled in the High Court of Chancery in England.

Annual and General Conferences.—The government of the Wesleyan Methodist Church in New South Wales is vested in the Annual Conference of clerical and lay representatives under the chairmanship of a President elected from its members. Representatives are appointed from the Annual Conference to the General Conference, which assembles once in three years, or at other intervals, as may be arranged. The subject of the organic union of the Methodist Churches of Australia has received much consideration from the Conference. At the General Conference held at Adelaide, May, 1884, resolutions were passed reaffirming the desirableness of union with other branches of Methodism separated at present by differences in ecclesiastical order, and for the establishment of a Federal Council of Methodist Churches as a step to organic union.

CONGREGATIONAL UNION OF NEW SOUTH WALES.

Organisation.—The Union of Congregational Churches allows every separate church to maintain perfect independence in the government and administration of its own particular affairs, and therefore does not assume legislative authority or act as a Court of Appeal. Each Congregational Church is represented at the General Assembly by its pastor and two or more delegates, according to the number of its members, two delegates being allowed for thirty members or under, and an additional delegate for every additional twenty members. The Committee of any College or Society recognised by the Congregational Union, subscribing not less than £1 annually, may elect two delegates. The Chairman and Committee are elected by ballot at each annual Session of the Union, the first of which was held in 1865.

SALVATION ARMY.

Organisation.—The Salvation Army was established in Australia in 1882. Melbourne was made the chief Centre for Australasia under the command of a Commissioner, and Sydney was constituted the headquarters for New South Wales, with a separate chief officer, who is termed Colonel, in command, all officers and members bearing military titles and designations. The various ranks are Commissioner, Colonel, Brigadier, Major, Staff-Captain, Captain, Lieutenant, and Cadet. The rank and file consist of sergeant-majors, sergeants, and soldiers. There are also treasurers and secretaries to corps. Persons who are in sympathy with the Salvation Army, but who have not subscribed to the "Articles of War"—which combine a Confession of Faith and a pledge against the use of intoxicating liquors and baneful drugs—form an Auxiliary League and contribute to the funds of the Army. Persons desirous of membership are publicly received, after six months' probation and subscription to the "Articles of War," and are then attached to the corps nearest their place of residence.

Church Returns, 1886.—The figures for 1886 except those for the Wesleyan Methodist Denomination denote the number usually attending principal service, not the average attendance, for this reason the figures for the year named cannot be used for purposes of comparison with those of other years. Sunday-school children are not included; for these figures see subjoined table.

Church Returns, 1893.—The returns for 1893 only include persons of 14 years and upwards. Prior to that year, some denominations included children from 8 years old; whilst, in one instance, only persons of 16 years of age and over were counted.

No. 37.—STATE AID TO RELIGION—Stipends paid to Clergymen since Act 7 Will. IV, No. 3, was repealed.

State Aid.—Under Act 7 Will. IV, No. 3, passed in the year 1836, State Aid was extended to the different denominations. Previous to that date the Church of England was the only one in receipt of it. Only four denominations, however, accepted the privilege accorded, viz., the Church of England, Roman Catholic, Presbyterian, and Wesleyan Methodist. In 1863, under Act 23 Vic. No. 19, all future grants of public money in aid of public worship were prohibited, and State Aid was confined solely to the 152 ministers who were at that date in receipt of stipends. This number, at the end of 1893, was reduced by death or other causes to 49. Although no recognition or assistance is given to any religious denomination by the State, a clause in the Statute provides that ministers may receive stipends from the Government when acting as chaplains to penal establishments and Charitable Institutions. Those ministers who hold positions of this description are not included in the subjoined table.

SECTION III.—MEDICINE AND HOSPITALS.

(Pages 657 to 674.)

No. 38.—LEGALLY QUALIFIED MEDICAL PRACTITIONERS, 1893.

New South Wales Medical Board.—Under Act 2 Vic. No. 22, "The New South Wales Medical Board" was appointed. The Act provides that it must consist of not less than three members, who must be members of the medical profession, one of whom shall be nominated President, together with a Secretary. The members of the Board receive no fees, and are removable by the Executive Council. The Secretary receives an honorarium of £100 per annum. In 1893 the Board consisted of ten members, exclusive of the President and Secretary.

Qualified Medical Practitioners.—By the Medical Practitioners Act, 1855 (19 Vic. No. 17), a legally qualified practitioner is defined to be "any person who shall prove to the satisfaction of the New South Wales Medical Board, or a quorum (three members) that he has passed through a regular course of medical study, of not less than three years duration, in a School of Medicine; and that he has received, after due examination, from the University of Sydney, or from some University, College, or other body, duly recognised for that purpose in the country to which such University, College, or other body may belong, a diploma, degree, or license, entitling him to practise medicine in that country."

Registration.—The Register was first opened in the year 1838, and up to September, 1894, 1,911 persons have been registered. A candidate for registration by the Medical Board must attend in person and furnish a copy of his photograph, attested by his signature, for future identification. The names of medical practitioners so registered are published monthly in the Government Gazette, and a complete list of those on the Register at the end of each year is issued during the month of January following. Medical practitioners already on the Register can have any additional qualifications they may obtain recorded on the official list.

Coast Hospital.—No additional probationers will be received at this Hospital. All vacancies occurring will be filled by appointing nurses holding certificates of competency, or by the promotion of present probationers who may pass a test examination satisfactorily.

Certificates of Competency.—These are granted to nurses after three years' training, on passing satisfactory oral and written examinations, by the medical staff of the different hospitals.

Certificates in Midwifery.—The medical officers attached to the Benevolent Asylum grant certificates in midwifery to trained nurses after having undergone, to their satisfaction, a six months' course of instruction at that institution.

No. 41.—CHEMISTS, DRUGGISTS, and DEALERS in POISONS.

Board of Pharmacy.—Under the Sale and Use of Poisons Act, 1876 (40 Vic. No. 9), a Board of Pharmacy was appointed, consisting of the President of the New South Wales Medical Board, the Medical Adviser to the Government, and the Council of the Pharmaceutical Society of New South Wales. No person is allowed to practice as a chemist and druggist or to sell poisons without a certificate from the Board.

Certificated Chemists and Druggists.—A person applying for a certificate must prove either that he has been duly admitted a pharmaceutical chemist by the Pharmaceutical Society of Great Britain; is a member or licentiate of the Apothecaries Hall of London or Dublin; has received a certificate as a legally qualified medical practitioner; was, at the time of the passing of the Act, in business in New South Wales as a chemist and druggist; or has served as apprentice or assistant to a chemist or druggist for three years and, after examination, has been proved competent by the Board. The fee charged for registration is £1. The register is published annually during the month of January in the Government Gazette, and any person is liable to have his name erased therefrom, who has been convicted of any offence against the Act, or who has become unfit through habitual intoxication or other cause.

No. 42.—HOSPITALS.—Accommodation, &c.—1893.

Subsidised Hospitals.—At the end of 1893 there were 102 hospitals subsidised by the Government, of these 10 were not open at the time the returns were called for, and 3 failed to furnish any returns. The subsidy consists of £ for every £ collected by the hospital, and is granted conditionally: (1st.) That the hospital admits all accidents and urgent cases brought to its doors; (2nd.) That all destitute cases recommended by the Police Magistrate or other approved officer (among whom must be considered the Government Medical Officer and the chief local officer of Police) must be admitted without delay; and, (3rd.) That cases of fever, erysipelas, and other infectious diseases, must be admitted as well as ordinary cases, and suitable provision made for their accommodation and treatment.

Unsubsidised Hospitals.—At Sydney (St. Vincent's), Auburn, and Lewisham, there are hospitals under the care of the Sisters of Charity and the Nursing Sisters of the Little Company of Mary, of the Roman Catholic Church. The patients are not, however, limited to members of this particular denomination. The three institutions depend entirely upon public subscriptions for their maintenance, and do not receive any subsidy from the Government. A special Government grant of £1,000, was however made in 1892, towards the building account of a new wing for St. Vincent's Hospital, £1,000 having also been received from the Government during the thirty-five previous years. The Thomas Walker Convalescent Hospital, Concord, receives no subsidy.

Government Hospital (Coast, Little Bay).—This hospital is entirely a Government institution, administered by the Department of the Medical Adviser to the Government. It is situated at Little Bay, distant a few miles south of Sydney. Patients are not charged any fees at this institution. In the case of those who are indigent and deserving, relief has been given from the Samaritan Fund, upon their discharge, so that an opportunity may be afforded of seeking work or returning to friends.

Government Asylums.—There are Hospitals in connection with the Government Asylums for the infirm and destitute, at Liverpool, George-street and Macquarie-street Parramatta, and Newington.

Quarantine Station.—For information relating to the Quarantine Station, Port Jackson, see Table No. 27, Page 29, Part I, "Shipping."

* No returns received. † Figures of previous year.

Average cost per Bed and per Patient.—As the expenditure of Hospitals in nearly every instance does not admit of a distinction being made between the amount expended on indoor and that on outdoor relief, it has been found impossible to establish a return showing the average yearly cost per bed and per patient.

No. 43.—HOSPITALS.—Persons Admitted, Discharged, &c., 1893.

Convalescent Hospital—"Thomas Walker," Concord.—The Thomas Walker Convalescent Hospital, situate on the Parramatta River, Concord, is a privately endowed hospital, neither subsidised by the Government nor in receipt of aid from the public. Although no recommendation is required, persons cannot be admitted without an official medical certificate, signed by one of the hon. examining or medical visiting officers of the Institution. The period of sojourn is limited to four weeks for each patient, but the medical officer may, if deemed necessary, readmit any patient for a further period of four weeks. Persons eligible for admission are those convalescing from serious illness, or active surgical treatment, and those who have fallen into a sickly condition who, in the opinion of the examining medical officer, will be benefited by a few weeks residence in the country. See also foot-note, Table No. 44.

Convalescent Hospital—"Carrington," Camden.—This hospital, situated at Camden, 42 miles from Sydney, acts as a hospital for the admission of convalescent patients from the Metropolitan Hospitals. Government patients sent either direct from the Hospital Admission Depôt, or from hospitals when the acute symptoms of illness have subsided, are paid for at the rate of 2s. per day. The hospital is in receipt of the usual subsidy from the State.

St. John Ambulance Association.—The N.S.W. Centre of the St. John Ambulance Association was established in Sydney during 1890. The object of this association is to disseminate general information as to the preliminary treatment of the sick and injured, without undue interference or intrusion upon the province of the surgeon. "First aid" and "Nursing" classes have been established, and examinations taken place in many towns. The total number of candidates already instructed amount to 2,080, of whom 546 men and 745 women obtained certificates. The receipts of the Centre from April, 1893, to September, 1894, amounted to £302, and the expenditure to £322. The cash in hand, however, on account of a previous credit balance, amounts to £45, and, in addition, there are stores to the value of £18.

No. 45.—HOSPITALS.—Revenue and Expenditure, 1893.

Endowment to Hospitals.—Although there is no statutory provision as to payments being made by Government to general hospitals, the amount of subsidy annually paid has been at the rate of £1 for every like amount received by private subscription. By Act 30 Vic. No. 19, passed in 1866, provision was made for the inspection of Hospitals and other Institutions aided by Government in order to ensure the proper application of grants. Trustees of Hospitals are permitted, under Act 45 Vic. No. 3, 1881, to invest the funds in various securities mentioned in the Statute. At meetings held for the election of Officers, annual subscribers of £1 or those who have paid £10 in one sum to the funds of the Hospital are entitled to votes.

Hospital Saturday.—On 30th April, 1894, subscriptions for metropolitan hospitals were obtained by lady honorary collectors from the public by outdoor canvass. A sum of £1,676 was collected and distributed amongst the various hospitals. It is intended that the Hospital Saturday shall be an annual institution.

Hospital Sunday.—The Metropolitan Friendly Societies, fire brigades, and other bodies, as well as those of some of the suburban and country districts, organise processions in their respective localities each year for the purpose of parading the streets and collecting subscriptions from the public for the benefit of the local hospitals. The amounts thus collected in the Metropolis during 1892, '93, and '94 were £202, £191, and £264 respectively.

No. 48.—Government Orders to Hospitals and Asylums.

Government Admissions to Hospitals.—The Sydney Depôt for the admission of patients to Hospitals and Asylums is under the management of the Government Medical Officer for Sydney, who is charged with the duty of assigning the cases to the different hospitals and asylums, in accordance with the nature, severity, and special character of the ailments from which the patients are suffering, and the accommodation available at the various institutions.

Out-door treatment.—Preliminary inquiries are made as to the pecuniary circumstances of the applicants and their fitness in this respect for relief at the hands of the Government. Cases which, on examination, appear not to need Hospital treatment, and to be suitable for the Asylums for the Infirm and Destitute, are given recommendations for those Institutions, and cases which do not require in-door Hospital treatment are given recommendations for out-door treatment at the Metropolitan Hospitals.

Patients dealt with.—During the year 1893, 7,859 persons were dealt with personally at the Hospital Admission Depôt, and 954 were admitted under Government orders to the Coast and Metropolitan Hospitals, and paid for in the latter institutions at the usual maintenance rate. These include patients found by the police and taken direct to the hospital, urgent cases of fevers and other diseases reported at the Medical Adviser's Office by registered medical practitioners, and transfers from Government institutions and country hospitals for special treatment.

No. 49.—HOSPITALS FOR INSANE—Government Institutions—Number of Patients—Gross and Net Expenditure—1893.

The Lunacy Act, 1879 (Act 42 Vic. No. 7), as amended in 1893 by Act 56 Vic. No. 23, provides for the proclamation of Government hospitals for the insane and for the granting of licenses for private houses for the reception of the insane; in addition to which it provides for hospitals for the criminal insane being established.

Admission of Patients.—Under the provisions of the 9th section of the Lunacy Act Further Amendment Act, 1893 (Act 56 Vic. No. 23), the order, request, medical certificates, or other documents by which an insane person has been received into a Hospital for the Insane may be amended under process much more simple than was provided for by the original Lunacy Act, so that it is not now necessary to reject the documents and delay the admission of the patient.

Influx of Insane Persons.—For many years there has been an influx to the Institutions for the Insane of persons who were insane on arrival in the Colony by sea, or became insane shortly afterwards, and this influx has of late years been greater by reason of enactments in neighbouring colonies, which prevented the landing of such cases therein. Act 56 Vic. No. 23, section 4, renders the owner, charterer, agent, or master liable for the maintenance of any insane person landed in the Colony. Under its provisions 10 cases were reported between the time it came into force (June, 1893), and the end of 1893. Of these 7 soon recovered and were discharged, 2 were returned by the steamship companies to the ports from which they were shipped, and 1 remained in hospital at the charge of the owners of the ship in which he arrived.

Other Payments.—£1,546 were also paid during 1893 for the maintenance of patients in the Reception House, and £2,821 for general expenses, including cost of Inspector-General's Office, payments to Official Visitors, &c., making a total expenditure of £101,077.

Patients from Broken Hill.—Owing to the difficulty and expense of sending insane patients from Broken Hill to hospital under proper escort, a small building is in course of erection there, in connection with the General Hospital, for the temporary reception and treatment of insane patients until they can be sent to Gladesville.

Licensed Houses for the Insane.—The number of Government patients at Cook's River Asylum was kept at 50 during 1893, vacancies by death being filled by transfer of others from the hospitals. Under sections 42 and 43 of the Act two cottages at Picton have been licensed each for a single patient; and a license was granted to a house at Ryde (September, 1893) for the reception of 6 female patients. None, however, had been received up to the end of 1893.

No. 56.—INSANITY—Government Hospital (Parramatta), CRIMINAL INSANE—Inmates, 1889–93.

Criminal Insane.—The majority of the patients at the Hospital for Criminal Insane, Parramatta, are known as Governor's pleasure cases, that is, those acquitted on the ground of being insane at the time they committed the offence with which they were charged, and ordered by the Courts to be kept in confinement during the Governor's pleasure. In addition to these there were certain persons certified to be insane whilst awaiting trial, or found to be insane by jury on arraignment. The patients serving sentence are becoming fewer in number each year, none being now received who are serving sentences exceeding one year.

No. 57.—MASTER IN LUNACY—Revenue Collections, 1884–93.

Master in Lunacy.—By the passing of Act 42 Vic. No. 7, Commissions de Lunatico Inquirendo were abolished, and the Supreme Court, or a Judge of that Court, on application to his satisfaction, is empowered to make Declarations in lieu thereof. The same statute enacted that the Master in Equity for the time being should be Master in Lunacy, and it confers on him large powers as to the management and care of the property of insane patients.

Estates of Insane Persons.—Act 56 Vic. No. 23, passed 1893, extended these powers to mortgage, let for any term not exceeding five years, sell, or otherwise deal with estates of insane patients, exclusive of debts and claims allowed by the Master, up to £500. In excess of that sum the Master can apply to the Court or to a Judge of the Court. He can also bring and defend actions and suits on behalf of a patient.

Payments to Next-of-Kin of Deceased Patient.—Under clause 30 of the same Act, the Master has power to pay any sum not exceeding £100 forming part of the estate of a deceased insane patient to the next-of-kin without letters of administration having been obtained.

Trust Funds.—The amount of Trust Funds belonging to insane patients amounted, on 30th September, 1894, to £57,432, of which £11,700 were invested in Government debentures.

Outdoor Relief.—The figures regarding outdoor relief shown in this table include instances in which shelter has been afforded and also meals given at the Institution. In other cases the return has been furnished of the number of families supplied with food for consumption in their own homes, in addition to which in some cases the railway and steamer fares of some of the applicants for relief have been paid in order to enable them to join their friends. On account of the various ways in which relief has been afforded by charitable institutions, it is difficult to compile a return embracing all the transactions. For additional information see Table No. 66.

Other Charitable Societies.—In addition to those named in the above table, there are others of less public importance which have been established in order to relieve distressed persons living in the localities in which the societies are established. No returns are available.

Government Labour Bureau—Relieving Branch.—For information regarding the transactions of the Relieving Branch of the Bureau, see Table No. 69.

Revenue and Expenditure.—It is a difficult matter to publish complete financial returns of all Charitable Institutions, as several, either privately endowed or belonging to a religious denomination, decline to furnish particulars, as it is considered that statements of this nature are of a private character and therefore do not concern the general public. On the other hand there are several institutions which are unable to furnish complete returns of revenue and expenditure as a considerable proportion of the gifts are received in kind, the money value of which it is difficult to estimate.

No. 66.—CHARITABLE INSTITUTIONS—OBJECTS and TRANSACTIONS.

Other Charities.—In addition to the information given in these Notes, further particulars may be obtained in the preceding pages.

Benevolent Society of New South Wales.

The objects of this Society are to relieve the poor, the distressed, and the aged, by affording them assistance in the form of provisions, &c., and small sums of money to assist in payment of rent; to provide an Asylum for homeless and deserted children and foundlings, and for children awaiting removal to other Asylums; to receive sickly mothers with infants, who cannot be received in the Infirmary or other hospitals, or who may be suffering from the diseases of women. The Society provides a Lying-in Hospital, and a training Institution for midwives and nurses. The cost of provisions given during the year 1893 was £2,805, and money for rent was distributed to the amount of £2,278. The provisions issued during 1893 were—bread, 133,664 loaves; flour, 77,149 lb.; meat, 53,603 lb.; sugar, 35,209 lb.; tea, 8,739 lb.; sago, 3,630 lb.; rice, 2,171 lb.; arrowroot, 66 lb.; oatmeal, 3,008 lb.; blankets, 48 pairs; boots, 448 pairs; milk, 369 quarts; forfar, 19 yards; flannel, 3 yards; raisins and currants, 1,274 lb. (special Christmas Gift).

Home Visiting and Relief Society.

The object of this Society is to visit at their own homes such of the distressed inhabitants of Sydney as belong to the Educated Classes, and have seen better days, but have been reduced by poverty, and to afford them such relief as their circumstances need, to aid them in their efforts to gain their own subsistence.

There were 66 persons to whom loans were granted during 1893. The total amount advanced being £229. Repayments on account of loans made at various dates were received to the value of £54.

New South Wales Institution for the Deaf and Dumb and the Blind.

This institution, founded in 1861, is situated on 5 acres of land on the Newtown Road. The foundation-stone of the present building was laid in 1871, it was opened the following year, and has been recently completed. The school has two sides, one for the blind, and one for the deaf and dumb. Children between the ages of 7 and 12, provided they are sound in intellect, are admitted from any part of New South Wales, and under certain conditions from Queensland and Tasmania. The fees charged for board, education, &c., are £40 per annum; in special cases a lower scale of fees is adopted; in cases of inability to pay, children are admitted free. The term of residence varies from 2 to 10 years. In addition to the usual educational course, the girls are taught cooking, household duties, needlework, &c., the deaf boys carpentry and modelling, and the blind children basket making and chair caning. The Braille system is used for teaching music and reading to the blind, and in the articulation classes the dumb have made satisfactory progress.

Home Teaching Society for the Blind.

There are two departments of this Society, the Home Teaching and the Industrial Home and Retreat. The operations of the former include the imparting of instruction in reading, music, chair-caning, and other handicraft work, to blind persons at their own homes; visiting country districts for the purpose of ascertaining fresh cases of blindness, and distributing books for their use. The Home and Retreat Department affords a permanent home for indigent blind females, who are taught various pursuits.

Charity Organization and Relief Society.

The cases in which relief was afforded by this Society during the year 1893 included 1,906 married persons, 549 widows, 118 deserted women, 13 single women, and 753 single men, making a total of 3,339 persons.

Queen's Jubilee Fund.

This Fund was inaugurated during the year 1887, and has for its object the relief of distressed women in New South Wales. The endowment account of the fund on the 31st December, 1893, amounted to £17,580. The sum of £918 was expended during 1893. Of this amount £834 was spent in relieving 272 women, of whom 190 were widows, 51 were married, and 31 were single.

Sydney City Mission.

To visit the poor in their homes, to administer to their spiritual and temporal wants, and to hold open-air services, were the objects for which in 1862 the Sydney City Mission was established. During 1893 11 missionaries were employed, 32,157 visits were made, 651 sick persons were provided with medical attendance and comforts, and 6,762 families were furnished with food and clothing, 1,343 open-air services, with an average attendance of 25,000, were held, and the Dorcas Society attached to the Mission numbered 23 members.

City Night Refuge and Soup Kitchen.

Shelter has been afforded to 25,446 persons, and 52,818 meals have been given, being a daily average of 145 for meals, and 70 for shelter. Soup and food have also been supplied to women and children for consumption at their own homes. The free registry office in connection with the Institution has found employment for 41 persons.

Sydney Night Refuge and Reformatory.

This Institution has been made use of by 2,470 men, and beds have been supplied in 13,051 cases. In addition to the shelter provided at night, each man receives a breakfast.

Sydney Rescue Work Society.

Home of Hope.—Applications during the year numbered 230, of which 49 were maternity cases.

Open All Night Refuge.—The average number daily provided with shelter during the year was 37 women and 21 children.

Women's Crusade Branch.—Each Sunday morning and on Good Friday and Christmas Day, the several city and suburban police stations have been visited, and provisions given during the year to 935 women and 2,159 men. In answer to appeals made on behalf of women charged with vagrancy, Magistrates have in many instances handed them over for admission to the Home of Hope.

Boys Brigade, Sydney.

Night shelter has been provided in this Institution to more than 50 lads, the total number of beds used being 750.

Meals and clothing have been given to about 50 destitute and neglected boys, and employment has been found for a considerable number of those belonging to the Brigade.

A Penny Savings Bank was open for the use of members throughout the year.

Ragged Schools.

Four Ragged Schools are situated within the Metropolitan area, two being in Sydney, one at Glebe and one at Waterloo.

There are eight teachers engaged in the work, and 467 children are on the roll. No fees or charges of any kind are made, the purpose of the schools being to provide free education and training to very poor and neglected children. No pecuniary assistance is received from the Government.

No. 66.—CHARITABLE INSTITUTIONS.—Objects and Transactions—continued.

Children's Home, Ashfield.

This Home was established in March, 1893, but its operations have been restricted. The inmates are separated into ordinary and hospital patients.

Echo Home.

In 1892 the "Echo Farm Home" was founded at Middle Harbour, Sydney, as a home for Inebriates and opened, under the auspices of the Local Option League and Ministers of various denominations, on 21st July of that year. Men of all creeds, who desire to restrain and reform their habits of drunkenness, are eligible for admission. There is accommodation for 22 persons including the manager; 92 have been received since the Home was opened, and the average duration of residence has been 80 days. The name of the institution was recently changed to "The Echo Home."

Church Home for the Intemperate and Fallen.

Founded, under the auspices of the Church of England Temperance Society, in 1884, and originally located in a house at Surry Hills, Sydney, this Home was removed during 1893 to more suitable premises at Paddington. Persons are received from the police courts and gaols, some seek admission of their own accord, and not a few are recommended for admission by the clergy. Situations are found for some, others are restored to their friends.

Labour Home.

This institution was founded on the 1st July, 1891, with a view of discouraging begging and also to help respectable men when out of employment to obtain food and temporary shelter in return for a certain amount of work performed. The committee of the Home considers that by the system employed in the management of the institution assistance is given to men to help themselves without in any way lowering their sense of self-respect. The ruling prices are sought to be maintained in the businesses of sawing and chopping firewood, caning chairs, and making fruit cases, which are carried on by this institution. In connection with the Labour Home there is a farm at Rooty Hill containing 100 acres, obtained on a five years' lease with the right of purchase.

Society of St. Vincent de Paul.

The Particular Council of Sydney of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul includes 25 Conferences and is affiliated to the Council General in Paris. During 1893 14,836 persons were visited in their own homes; groceries and other provisions to the value of £1,541 and clothing, bedding, and medicine were given to the poor, many of whom were assisted to start in business or to obtain employment. The St. Aloysius Home at Five Dock for the relief of poor and destitute boys is assisted materially by the Society and mission work has been commenced amongst the sailors visiting Sydney, who are members of the Roman Catholic Church.

Salvation Army Social Institutions.

The Social Work of the Salvation Army in New South Wales includes the management of three institutions—two, the Glebe Rescue Home and Newtown Maternity Home being for women, and the Prison Gate Brigade Home situated at St. Peters for men. The officers of the Salvation Army attend the police courts, Sydney, and the gates of the gaol with a view to giving advice or assistance to persons wishing to lead better lives. The report for the year ending 30th June, 1894, shows that 138 persons were sent to situations, 48 were restored to friends, 37 to hospitals and asylums, 24 to Wimbledon Farm and other Homes, and 13 were assisted to go to the country. The number remaining in the Homes on the 30th June was 62. Beds were supplied in 22,844 cases and 69,120 meals were given.

Sir Moses Montefiore Jewish Home.

This Home provides a permanent habitation for many aged persons of the Hebrew faith and constantly affords a temporary shelter for several whose circumstances require it. During the year loans to the amount of £127 were granted and £180 were repaid.

Institutions under Religious Denominations.

In addition to the institutions mentioned in these notes, and also those from which statistics have been obtained and inserted in the tables given on the preceding pages, there are many Charitable Institutions connected with the various religious bodies, the doors of which are open to admit persons of any creed.

Shaftesbury Reformatory for Girls.

The management of this Institution, formerly in the hands of the Comptroller-General of Prisons, has been transferred to the Department of Charitable Institutions, and at present is supervised by the State Children's Relief Board.

Nautical School Ship "Sobraon."

In addition to being used as a training school the "Sobraon" acts as a reformatory for boys. Although every boy committed is under control until he is 18 years of age, he does not necessarily remain on the ship, but may be apprenticed.

In April, 1894, there were 400 apprentices under the guardianship of the Commander and Superintendent. The Institution is administered by the Department of Public Instruction.

Industrial School for Girls, Parramatta.

This Industrial School and Reformatory is under the supervision of the Department of Public Instruction. The girls remain in the Institution until 18 years of age, unless apprenticed before that time. Fifteen were apprenticed during 1893. The value of work performed by inmates during the year has been estimated at £1,886.

National Shipwreck Relief Society.

For information relating to the objects of this Society and its transactions, see Table 26, Part I., Shipping.

Aborigines Protection Board.

The Board appointed by the Government for the protection of the Aborigines of New South Wales consists of eight members. During 1893 a total sum of £15,254 was expended, and on the 31st December last, 1,614 aborigines, including 727 children, were being supported, and Aboriginal children, numbering 640, were receiving instruction at the various stations. There are ninety-four reserves for the use of aborigines, in various parts of the Colony, the total area being 23,894 acres.

Animals Protection Society.

This Society was established in 1873 for the purpose of preventing, by every legitimate means, cruelty to animals. The last Annual Report directs special attention to the clause in Act 14 Vic. No. 40, which provides for the apprehension of offenders:—"When and so often as any of the offences against the provisions of this Act shall happen, it shall and may be lawful for any constable, upon his own view thereof, or upon the complaint and information of any other person, who shall declare his or her name and place of abode to said constable, to seize and secure by the authority of this Act, any such offender, and forthwith, without any other authority or warrant, to convey such offender before a Justice of the Peace, to be dealt with by such Justice for such offence according to law." During the year ending 30th June, 1893, the two Inspectors have prosecuted 174 persons, obtained 139 convictions, and cautions have been given by them on account of minor offences in 371 instances. The receipts of the Society for the year amounted to £687, and expenditure to £669.

No. 67.—STATE CHILDREN'S RELIEF BOARD—Transactions to April, 1894.

State Children.—The State Children's Relief Act (44 Vic. No. 24) passed in April, 1881, provides for the removal of any State Child from an Asylum or Charitable Institution, and for its being "boarded out" in the house of some person licensed under the Act, until such child attains the age of 12 years. The administration of the Act is entrusted to a Board of nine persons, which is empowered to apprentice children for periods not exceeding five years. The Boarding-out Officer, when directed by the Chief Secretary, has authority to remove children from Reformatory Schools, and cause them to be boarded out for any period not extending beyond the term of detention imposed. The Board may direct the restoration of a child to its parent or guardian on such terms as may be deemed proper.

No. 68.—CHILDREN'S PROTECTION DEPARTMENT.—Transactions for the Years 1893-4.

Children's Protection Act.—Under the Children's Protection Act (of 1892), 55 Vic. No. 30, it is not lawful for a person, other than a guardian or the Officers of a Charitable Institution, to agree upon payment of a premium to receive a child under the age of three years, for the purpose of its being adopted, reared, or nursed, apart from its parent. The limit of the maintenance fee allowed for these children, and the time of instalments, have also been fixed. Persons adopting or otherwise taking charge of children are compelled to be registered. Children under 14 years of age are also protected by the Act, as they are not permitted to take part in performances of a dangerous character.

Extension of Provisions of Act.—The Children's Protection Act was only partially in force between the 14th August, 1892, and 7th July, 1893; at the latter date, however, its provisions were extended in order to embrace the whole Colony.

Lying-in homes.—These come under the provisions of the Act, and all births must be registered. In the case of still-born children, the certificate of a qualified person has to be obtained.

No. 69.—GOVERNMENT LABOUR BUREAU.—Transactions for year ending 17th February, 1894.

Labour Bureau.—The Government Labour Bureau was established on the 18th February, 1892. Persons requiring employment are registered at the Bureau without fee or charge, leaving the matter of wages to be arranged between the employer and employé. 12,145 persons, of whom 5,048 were married and 7,097 single, registered themselves during the year, and employment was obtained for 10,357. Prior to the 5th July free passes were issued by rail or steamer without guarantee, but since that date orders have been signed by the employés on employers for a refund of the cost of passes to be deducted from the first month's wages. The total amount thus refunded to the 17th February, 1894, was £3,812, being 44 per cent. of the total amount signed for.

Relieving Branch.—The Government distributed 52,525 rations, the average number of families in receipt of relief being 379. During the year the cost of the rations was £3,840. A ration consists of 3 lb. meat, 4 lb. bread, ½ lb. tea, and 4 lb. sugar. Compared with the previous year there was a marked reduction in the number of men for whom employment was procured in the building and many other trades, the general depression culminating in the financial crisis affecting these industries especially. A special feature introduced during 1893 was sending out, fossicking on the old goldfields of the Colony, those of the unemployed who desired to do so. To each of these, in addition to a free miner's right and railway pass, rations were supplied, consisting of 10 lb. flour, 5 lb. sugar, and ½ lb. tea, costing 2s. 6d. each. Up to 17th February, 1894, 2,278 of these miners' rations had been issued, at a total cost of £285 10s. 2d.

Relief to Country Districts.—By a Ministerial minute it was ordered that, from December, 1893, relief votes should be given as a subsidy of £ for £ for an equal amount voted by the Municipal Council or raised by the public, and expended in giving work on the roads and streets to the destitute unemployed, instead of giving out gratuitous rations, and this system is now being carried out.

An increase of 2,203 is shown on the number sent out to employment for the year ending 17 February, 1894, over the previous year.

SECTION I.—MUNICIPALITIES.

(Pages 691 to 719.)

No. 1.—LOCAL GOVERNMENT.—Municipalities, 1893–4.

Local Government—present and prospective.—Under the present system no district however populous is required to become incorporated, and it is only by the consent of a majority of the prospective ratepayers that a municipality can be formed. It is proposed to alter the existing law, and arrangements have been made to draft the necessary legislation, under which it is proposed to divide the whole Colony into Districts and Shires. Three Commissioners have been appointed, whose duties are to divide the unincorporated area into Municipal Districts, as provided by the Municipalities Act of 1867, and Shires, to be of any greater extent than required for a Municipal District; to suggest such attachments to existing Municipal Districts as may be necessary in the public interest; to classify Municipal Districts according to probable revenue, expenditure, area, and density of population, into first, second, and third classes; and to classify Shires into first, second, third, and fourth classes, according to area, population, revenue, and public works, or Local Government requirements generally. The Bill was introduced to the Assembly on 14th November, 1894.

No. 2.—LOCAL GOVERNMENT.—Municipalities—Capital Value of all Ratable Property, &c., 1893-4.

Municipal Year.—The municipal year of the City of Sydney commences on the 1st January, and that of the suburban and country municipalities on the first Tuesday in February.

Municipal Council of Sydney.—Sydney was incorporated in 1842 (6 Vic. No. 3), which Act was repealed with certain exceptions, by 14 Vic. No. 41, passed in 1850; the mayoralty continued till 1853; the Corporation was then dissolved (17 Vic. No. 33), and the Government appointed three City Commissioners, who administered the civic affairs till 1857, at which date the Council was re-established under Act 20 Vic. No. 36, which remained in force till 1879, when it was superseded by the present Act, 43 Vic. No. 3. Sydney being governed under special legislation, the Municipal Act (31 Vic. No. 12) of 1867 and Amending Acts only apply to suburban and country municipalities.

Suburban and Country Municipalities.—Under the provisions of Act 31 Vic. No. 12 the Municipalities were divided into two classes, Boroughs and Municipal Districts. A borough (b) shall, upon its first incorporation, contain an area of not more than 9 square miles, with a population not less than 1,000 inhabitants; a municipal district (m) must not exceed 50 square miles, and shall contain a population of at least 500. The boundaries of each class of division must not overlap.

Assessment—"City Rate."—The rate is imposed under part 6 of the Sydney Corporation Act, of 1879. The assessment is made from time to time as the Council may direct. The existing one was made in 1890, and came into operation in 1891, at which date the rate was lowered from 18d. to 16d. in the £. There are, however, annual supplementary assessments for new and altered buildings. Appeal Courts are held annually.

No. 2.—LOCAL GOVERNMENT.—Municipalities—Capital Value of all Ratable Property, &c., 1893-4—continued.

Assessment—General and Special Rates, Suburban and Country Municipalities.—Under the 164th clause of the Municipalities Act of 1867 rates are struck on nine-tenths of the fair average annual rental of all buildings and cultivated lands, and on 5 per cent. of the capital value of the fee simple of unimproved lands. The general and special rates, taken together, for any municipality must not exceed 2s. in the £ of the assessment of the ratable property. The 2s. limit has been exceeded by some municipalities constructing works under the Country Towns Water and Sewerage Act which empowers the local authorities to strike a special rate for the service outside the provisions of the Municipal Act. Each of the suburban and country municipalities makes an annual assessment, and Courts of Appeal are held each year.

Amount of Rate Struck.—The City rate is the only one levied by the Municipal Council of Sydney, the general expenditure, including that for lighting, being borne from the collections therefrom. The rate varies according to the financial requirements of the Council, being, as previously mentioned, 18d. in the £ on nine-tenths of the annual value of improved property in 1890, and 16d. since that date. The general rate levied by suburban and country municipalities (except Cobar and Cudal) on improved property is 5 per cent. on nine-tenths of annual value, and on unimproved property is 5 per cent. on 5 per cent. of the capital value.

Broken Hill and other Mining Municipalities.—The capital value of ratable property in Broken Hill and other mining municipalities is exclusive of that of the mines, estimated at several millions, which, under the terms of the Municipal Act, are exempt from taxation, although building and surface areas are taxed.

Water Supply.—For particulars of works constructed under Country Towns Water and Sewerage Acts see page 714.

Sewerage.—The dry-earth closet system is adopted in some Country Municipalities where there is no underground drainage, and also in the Suburban Municipalities to which the Metropolitan system has not been extended. For the earth-closet system no rate is struck, but a weekly or annual charge is made for the service rendered. No rate for this service is shown under "other special rates" in this Table, but the amounts collected have been included under the heading of "other sources" in Table No. 3. For the Water and Sewerage services under the Metropolitan Board of Water Supply and Sewerage, rates on a graduated scale are levied on the basis of the annual assessments of the Municipalities. The Board administers the only comprehensive system of sewerage existing in the Colony.

Lighting.—Lighting rates are imposed under the 165th clause of the Municipalities Act. No lighting rates are levied by the Municipal Council of Sydney.

No. 3.—LOCAL GOVERNMENT.—Municipalities—Receipts, 1893-4.

Endowment.—Under the 189th clause of the Municipalities Act of 1867, each Municipality is entitled to an annual endowment from the State for a period of fifteen years from its incorporation. For the first five years the sum annually granted equals the amount actually raised by ordinary rate, assessments, and subscriptions; for the next five years it is entitled to one-half of the amount granted in the last year of the former period; and for the remaining five years the proportion is reduced to one-fourth. At the end of the fifteen years the endowment, as defined by this Act, ceases. Any further assistance from the State must be obtained by special grants. The State Endowment to the Municipal Council of Sydney was discontinued after the year 1889.

Accounts—Municipal Council of Sydney.—The Council presents its accounts under five distinct headings, viz.:—City Fund, City Fund Suspense Account, Cattle Sale-yards Fund, Town Hall Loan Fund, and Moore-street Improvement Fund. For abbreviation the different classes of accounts have been amalgamated, and shown under one heading. It is not the practice of the officials of the Council, however, to present a general account, as herewith shown.

Receipts from Government.—The Council does not receive any money from the State, except for Auctioneers' Licenses granted within the City, which are paid into the City Fund under the 215th clause of the Corporation Act. The State Endowment to the Council was discontinued after the year 1889.

No. 5.—LOCAL GOVERNMENT—Municipal Council, Sydney—Outstanding Debentures, February, 1894.

Loans- Sydney Municipal Council.—All loans of the Council have been floated under special Acts.

No. 6.—LOCAL GOVERNMENT.—Outstanding Loans of Municipalities, 1893-4.

(Municipalities omitted from the Table have no outstanding Loans.)

Suburban and Country Municipal Loans.—Under the Municipalities Act of 1867, any Municipality may borrow on the credit of any land, personal estate, or annual revenue, actual or prospective, belonging to the body corporate. The total sum, however, is not to exceed the estimated Municipal Revenue for five years.

Municipal Loan Act of 1888 (52 Vic. No. 9).—During July, 1888, an Act was passed for the purpose of enabling Councils to borrow money upon the security of lands on which Town Halls or Council Chambers are intended to be, or have been, partly or wholly erected, and of the buildings thereon. During June, 1893, a further amending Act was passed (56 Vic. No. 32), which empowered the Councils to borrow money for the repayment of Loans. The Act is to be read with the principal Act and any amending Acts.

Amount of Loans raised Locally.—Of the total outstanding indebtedness (£2,522,393), £963,105 was raised in Sydney, and the balance, £1,554,288, in London, of which £1,110,000 was incurred by the Municipal Council of Sydney.

No. 10.—LOCAL GOVERNMENT—Municipalities—Water Supply Works.

Constructed within Municipalities under the Country Towns Water and Sewerage Act (44 Vic. No. 14) of 1880.

The Country Towns Water and Sewerage Act (44 Vic. No. 14) was passed in 1880. Under its provisions, municipalities outside the area under the control of the Metropolitan and Hunter District Water Supply and Sewerage Boards are, under certain conditions, entitled to construct, or have constructed for them by Government, works for water supply and sewerage. The amount expended in construction is advanced by the State, the municipalities being required under the Act to refund the cost by fixed periodical payments. It being found that the municipalities were unable to comply with these provisions The Country Towns and Hunter District Water Supply and Sewerage Acts Amendment Act of 1894 (57 Vic. No. 19) was passed. Under the amending Act the rate of interest is reduced to 3½ per cent. per annum from dates of disbursement of the expenditure, while the repayment is to be made by equal annual instalments spread over a period not exceeding 100 years. Under special circumstances the Governor is authorised by the Amending Act to grant partial remissions.

The Broken Hill Water Supply Works, Stephen's Creek.—These works were constructed by a private company under The Broken Hill and District Water Supply Act of 1888, and an Amending Act, passed April, 1892, which extended the time allowed for the completion of the work for a period of eighteen months from that date. The works have been finished and are in operation.

SEWERAGE.

Sewerage Works of Metropolitan Municipalities.—The general system of sewerage now being carried out in the Metropolitan area will supersede the isolated systems of the suburban Municipalities, and the works already constructed will eventually form part of the general scheme. The works constructed by the Councils of Sydney, Redfern, and Darlington now form part of the general system.

General Sewerage Systems.—The metropolitan sewerage system is the only comprehensive one in the Colony, as no country municipality has taken advantage of the Country Towns Water and Sewerage Act of 1880 to construct works connected with this service.

No. 11.—LOCAL GOVERNMENT.—Municipalities—Gas and Electric Lighting Works, 1893-4.

Municipal Gas Act, 48 Vic. No. 20.—This Act was passed in October, 1884, and authorises Councils to construct gasworks, to enforce charges for the supply, and to inflict penalties for breaches of the Act. Power is also given for Councils to borrow money as a special loan for the construction of the works. An Amending Act (50 Vic. No. 7) was passed in August, 1886, which extended the borrowing powers of the Councils by authorising loans for the construction of gasworks, to be floated on the security of rates. Of the municipalities within the Metropolitan District using gas, all, with the exception of Manly, Mosman, North Sydney, and Willoughby, are supplied by the Australian Gaslight Company.

Licenses for Public Vehicles.—Metropolitan Transit Commissioners.—The figures given above are exclusive of the 465 licenses for public vehicles granted during 1893 by the Collector of Customs for the conveyance of bonded goods. Prior to 1873 the regulation of street traffic was under the City Council. In that year an Act (36 Vic. No. 14) was passed, which transferred the control of the traffic to three Transit Commissioners, the number of whom was increased in 1886 to four by Act 50 Vic. No. 14. The Board consists of the Mayor of Sydney (chairman), the Inspector-General of Police, a representative of the suburban municipalities, and the fourth is elected by the licensees coming under the Act. The two latter are annually elected. The receipts during 1893 amounted to £5,583, of which £5,054 were obtained from license fees, and the balance from fines, &c. The expenditure during the same period was £5,598.

No. 13.—LOCAL GOVERNMENT.—Municipalities—Public Vehicle Licenses granted by the Municipal Authorities during 1893-4.

Licensed Vehicles.—Licenses under Municipalities Act.—Under the 129th clause of the Municipalities Act of 1867 the Councils may impose a fixed charge on all vehicles plying or carrying goods or passengers within Municipalities. The Public Vehicles Act of 1873, however, repeals the above clause of the 1867 Act as regards Municipalities within the Police District of Sydney, the control of vehicles in that district being vested in the Transit Commissioners.

Municipal Wharfs Act.—This Act (56 Vic. No. 28) was passed in June, 1893, empowering municipal authorities to lease and acquire lands for the purpose of erecting wharfs, jetties, waiting-rooms, &c., also to make by-laws for the regulation of the wharfs, &c., and to levy such tolls as may be deemed necessary. As the Act was only in operation for six months of the year 1893, the amounts collected were small, viz. :—Balmain, £331; North Sydney, £77; Woollahra, £75; Gosford, £9; Newcastle, £291; and Numba, £30.

Noxious Trades and Cattle Slaughtering Act.—This Act (57 Vic. No. 21) is administered by the Municipal Councils or, in unincorporated districts, by the police. The Act provides for the control of trades or manufactures, which have been proclaimed "Noxious Trades," and also for the registration and regulation of slaughter-houses. Officers of the Board of Health are also empowered to exercise the rights conferred on the local authorities.

Dairies Supervision Act.—This Act (50 Vic. No. 17) was passed September, 1886. It is administered by the Municipal Councils or, in unincorporated districts, by the Police Magistrate or senior Police Officer. It provides for the registration and inspection of all cattle, utensils, and premises used by dairymen and milk-vendors, and for the closing of any source of water supply which may become polluted. The officers of the Board of Health have similar authority conferred on them by this Act.

No. 14.—LOCAL GOVERNMENT—Municipalities—Electors on Roll, and Number of Aldermen, 1893-4.

Election Qualifications.—Under the Municipalities Act of 1867, every person (whether male or female) of the full age of twenty-one years who, on the 7th day of January in any year shall be the occupier, lessee, or owner of any ratable property within any municipality, and liable to be rated for the same, shall be entitled to vote. If the property is assessed at an annual value not exceeding £25, the occupier, lessee, or owner thereof shall be entitled to one vote; if assessed at over £25 and not exceeding £75, to two votes; if at over £75, and not exceeding £150, to three votes; and if at over £150, to four votes. No person whose rates are in arrear is entitled to vote. By special enactment, both ratepayers and owners of property in Sydney are entitled to vote. Provision is made for the retirement annually of a certain number of aldermen, and elections are held to fill the vacancies. Aldermen are elected for a period of three years. The Local Option vote is taken every third year in conjunction with the Municipal Elections of that year; but the date of incorporation of Municipalities incorporated after the principle of Local Option was adopted, not being uniform, the Local Option vote for the whole Colony cannot be taken simultaneously.

METROPOLITAN WATER SUPPLY.

Water Supply.—As early as 1850 the City Corporation was empowered to construct water and sewerage works, a in accordance with such authority works for each service were carried out, but on a limited scale. The water supply and sewerage systems adopted by the City Council have been superseded by comprehensive ones for the whole Metropolitan area, and the old works of the City Council, as well as several of the isolated systems in the suburbs now, or eventually, will form part of the respective general schemes. During 1867, a Royal Commission was appointed to investigate and report upon proposals for supplying water to the city and suburbs. Two years later the Commissioners submitted a report recommending the adoption of the "Upper Nepean scheme," which was accepted. The works are being carried out under authority of Act 43 Vic. No. 32, passed in 1880. The first contract in connection with the water supply service was let in November, 1879, and in 1887 the works had so far advanced that the Government passed an Act transferring the control in May, 1888, to the Metropolitan Board of Water Supply and Sewerage. The 355·1 miles of water mains chiefly constructed by the City Council were placed under the Board at the same date, and the 70·27 miles of sewerage mains during September, 1889, as will be seen by reference to page 722. The Board was established under Act 43 Vic. No. 32, as amended by 51 Vic. No. 28, and consists of seven members, three of whom are nominated by the Governor, two elected by the City Council, and two by the Suburban and Country Municipalities within the County of Cumberland, which are supplied by water.

Reservoirs, 1893.

The Nepean System.—The source of the supply is the united waters of the Nepean, Cataract, and Cordeaux Rivers. The water is intercepted at a height of 437 feet above the level of the sea, and flows through a series of conduits to Prospect Reservoir, 40 miles from the farthest source of supply, thence to Potts' Hill Balance Reservoir. The water after leaving this reservoir passes through a screening tank, from which it is conveyed by mains to the various reservoirs within the Metropolis.

Outlying Districts supplied by Gravitation.—The districts of Campbelltown, Liverpool, Granville, Auburn, Rookwood, Ashfield, Hurstville, and Kogarah, are supplied direct from the main canal by gravitation, except the higher parts of Ashfield and Kogarah, the former being supplied from a 100,000-gallon tank connected with the Woollahra Reservoir, and the latter from a 20,000-gallon tank at Penshurst.

No. 17.—LOCAL GOVERNMENT.—Richmond Water Supply (administered by the Metropolitan Board of Water Supply and Sewerage), 1893.

Richmond Water Supply.—The works were constructed under the Country Towns Water and Sewerage Act (44 Vic. No. 14). The Municipal Council of Richmond administered the service till the 26th May, 1893, when it was temporarily transferred, pending legal powers, to the Metropolitan Board of Water Supply and Sewerage. The Board is much restricted in its management, as only premises owned by persons who have signed agreements to take the water can be rated. The accounts are kept separate from those of the Metropolitan Water Scheme. The Plant consists of pumping works erected on the left bank of the Hawkesbury, just below the confluence of the Grose and Nepean; a circular brick tank, having a capacity of 225,000 gallons; a 6-inch supply main to Richmond, 4 miles in length; and 5⅛ miles of reticulation mains. During the half-year 3,838,000 gallons were pumped with a consumption of 21 tons of coal.

METROPOLITAN SEWERAGE.

Metropolitan Sewerage.—The original Sewerage Works of Sydney were begun in 1854, and at the date when the works were transferred to the Board the City Council had constructed 70·27 miles of sewerage. From 1875 to 1877 a Royal Commission was appointed to investigate and report upon a comprehensive scheme for the Metropolis, and in the latter year a report was presented which recommended the scheme now being carried out. The first contract in connection with the new Sewerage Works was let in 1880, and in September, 1889, the works then constructed were transferred to the Metropolitan Board of Water Supply and Sewerage, under authority of the Metropolitan Water and Sewerage Act Amendment Act (53 Vic. No. 16), passed in the same year.

The Metropolitan Water and Sewerage Act Extension Act (57 Vic. No. 12).—This Act provides for the administration and construction, by the Metropolitan Board of Water Supply and Sewerage, of storm-water drains or sewers on certain areas which may from time to time be proclaimed in the Government Gazette. The boundaries of these areas, however, may be altered if the appeal by the local authorities to the nearest Court of Petty Sessions be sustained. Under clause 3 the Board is empowered to impose special rates, pending the extension of the general sewerage works to the locality.

HUNTER DISTRICT WATER SUPPLY.

The Water Supply Works of the Lower Hunter were constructed by the Government under the provisions of the Country Towns Water Supply and Sewerage Act of 1880. The works in July, 1892, were transferred under Act 55 Vic. No. 27 to the Hunter District Water Supply and Sewerage Board. The Board consists of seven members—three of whom are nominated by the Government, one by the Municipal Council of Newcastle, one by the Councils of East and West Maitland and Morpeth, and two by the other municipalities within the proclaimed area.

The following municipalities are within the area administered by the Board, viz. :—

Repayment of Cost of Permanent and Renewable Works.—Under the 129th clause of Act 55 Vic. No. 27, the Board is required to pay the cost of the permanent works in annual instalments, with 3½ per cent. interest on the unpaid balance, within a period not exceeding 100 years. In 1894 an Amending Act, 57 Vic. No. 19, was passed, extending the time for repayment of renewable works to a similar period. The annual instalment for the years ending 30th June, 1893 and 1894, was £3,764, as shown above.

No. 20.—LOCAL GOVERNMENT.—Boards and Trusts.

CITY OF SYDNEY IMPROVEMENT BOARD, 1893.

This Board was established in 1879. It consists of five members, of whom one at least must be a professional architect, another a practical builder, and another a medical practitioner. The jurisdiction of the Board is confined to the city limits. Under the authority of the Act a City Building Surveyor is appointed by the Sydney Municipal Council, whose duties are to see that the rules and regulations of the Act are truly observed. Power is given to the Board to adjudicate upon appeals made by any person who is dissatisfied with the proceedings or decisions of any officer empowered to carry out the provisions of the Act. The Act has, however, been practically inoperative and no work was performed by the Board during 1893. The Board alleges that the Act is deficient, and recommends the passing of an Amending Act, providing for the appointment of an Inspector of Buildings, under the control of the Board, who would have co-ordinate powers with the City Building Surveyor.

No. 21.—LOCAL GOVERNMENT—Boards and Trusts.

WOLLONGONG HARBOUR TRUST.

Wollongong Harbour Trust.—The Trust was established in 1889, under Act 53 Vic. No 19, and is the only one of its kind in New South Wales, all the other ports being directly under the control of the Government. Twelve Commissioners constitute the Trust, three of whom are appointed by the Government; two are elected by the Borough Council of Wollongong; one each is elected by the Councils of Central Illawarra, North Illawarra, and one by the Bulli and Clifton Division of the Electoral District of Illawarra within the area of their population boundaries, when those districts are incorporated; two are elected by the owners of ships registered in Sydney and trading with the port of Wollongong, and two by the colliery owners, merchants, and traders who are liable to pay wharfage rates under the Act. (See also Note, Part I "Shipping" page 28.)

Borrowing Powers.—Under section 90 of the Act, the Commissioners may, with the sanction of the Government, float loans on the security of the tolls, rates, &c. The amount of outstanding loans must not exceed £250,000; the debentures or stock can be negotiated in Sydney or London, and the principal can be made payable in either place. The Act also provides that a Sinking Fund may be established for the purpose of paying off the money borrowed. In addition, under section 94, the Commissioners have power to obtain an overdraft from any bank, the principal of which must not exceed £25,000 at any one time. Up to the 31st December, 1893, no money had been raised by loan or overdraft.

Government Endowment.—Under section 89, the Trust is entitled to receive the sum of £5,000 per annum for the first five years after the date when the Act came into force.

The liabilities under contract were on the 31st December, 1893, £12,637, and the amount of uncollected revenue, £1,127.

No. 22.—IRRIGATION TRUSTS.

Irrigation Trusts.—Trusts have been established, under special Acts, at Wentworth, Hay, and Balranald, but beyond the survey of the areas, which have been vested in Trustees, into lots of from 5 to 40 acres, and other initiatory work, very little progress as to settlement has been made.

Wentworth Irrigation Trust.

This Trust was established under Act 54 Vic. No. 7 (passed September, 1890). The Trustees, who are the members of the Municipal Council of Wentworth for the time being, are empowered to tap the rivers Darling and Murray, and to construct dams and pumping machinery for irrigation purposes and, upon obtaining permission from the Governor-in-Council, to borrow money for these purposes. The area forming this Trust was a portion of the temporary common already vested in the Municipal Council. The Act provides that the Trust may lease portions for any term not exceeding three years or, with the sanction of the Minister, for any term not exceeding thirty years, and may contract to supply water to persons outside as well as inside the irrigation area. Up to September, 1894, no portions had been leased.

Hay Irrigation Trust.

This Trust was established under Act 55 Vic. No. 25 (passed March, 1892), the provisions of which are practically the same as those of the Wentworth Act. The land set apart forms part of the temporary common, and comprises 19,847 acres. Any person (except Asiatics) can select and hold from 5 to 40 acres. The land was only thrown open in December, 1893, and up to 28th January, 1894, 485 acres had been applied for. The expenditure up to that date was nil, as no work in connection with irrigation had been commenced.

Balranald Irrigation Trust.

The provisions of the Act (56 Vic. No. 26), passed June, 1893, establishing this Trust, are almost identical with those of the two preceding Trusts. As in their cases, the land forming this Trust is a portion of the temporary common. The Act limits the area any one person may lease to a maximum of 40 and a minimum of 5 acres, and no person under 18 years of age, nor a married woman, is allowed to hold a lease. Up to the end of 1893, 1,000 acres had been surveyed into lots of 5 to 40 acres, but, as the by-laws framed by the Trustees had not then received the sanction of the Minister, these lots had not been thrown open.

No. 23.—METROPOLITAN FIRE BRIGADE AND VOLUNTEER COMPANIES.—Stations, Plant, &c., 1893.

Metropolitan Fire Brigade Board.—The Board was established in 1884 under Act 47 Vic. No. 3, and consists of six members, viz., the chairman, appointed by the Government, and five elected members, one of whom is appointed by the Municipal Council of Sydney, one by the other Municipalities within the proclaimed area, two by the Fire Insurance Companies carrying on business in the Colony, and one by the Volunteer Fire Companies. The elected members retire every two years, but are eligible for re-election. Towards the annual outlay the Government, the Municipalities, and the Fire Insurance Companies each contribute one-third. During 1893 the amount received from each was £5,500. The Municipalities contribute pro rata to the assessed annual value of ratable property in their respective districts, and each of the Fire Insurance Companies proportionately to the net risks held on properties situate within the Metropolitan District. Through a weakness in the Act, Sydney Harbour is outside the jurisdiction of the Board.

Fire Alarm Telephones.—Telephones connected with the fire stations are placed in fire-alarm boxes in all the important localities of the city and suburbs. The telephonic system at the end of 1892 comprised 52 telephones erected, 7 telephone switchboards, and 87 telephone fire alarms. Most of the volunteer fire stations, theatres, music halls, &c., are also in direct communication with the permanent stations. The various police stations are also in communication through the Central Police Station. Those public offices, wharfs, business firms, &c., that are connected with the General Post Office Exchange, can transmit calls for fires at any hour of the day or night, and arrangements have been made for the watchmen employed by the principal business houses to report to the head-quarters station several times every night.

Subsidies of Fire Insurance Companies.—Under the 15th Clause of the Fire Brigades Act 1884, the Insurance Companies, holding risks within the proclaimed area under the Fire Brigades Board of Sydney, are required to furnish annually to the Board the amount held at risk (within the proclaimed area) by each Company on the preceding 31st December, less the sums reinsured with other contributing Companies under the Act. The total subsidies for 1893 were £5,500 from 43 Companies; the amount to be contributed by each Company towards the cost of maintenance for the year is established by the Board from the returns supplied by the Companies.

No. 27.—COUNTRY FIRE COMPANIES.

Country Fire Brigades.—Under Clause 20 authority is given to extend the provisions of the Fire Brigades Act to the country districts, but owing to an ambiguous clause in the Statute, the Fire Insurance Companies do not consider themselves called upon to contribute towards their share of the expense of maintenance as defined by the Act. The Boards, however, are entitled to receive subsidies from the Government, and the Municipalities interested. Some of the undermentioned Municipalities have not taken any steps further than having been gazetted.

No. 28.—INQUESTS ON FIRES, 1893.

Inquests on Fires.—Act 24 Vic. No. 10 provides that "when any property, real or personal, shall be destroyed or damaged by fire, the Coroner having or exercising jurisdiction at or in the place where such fire shall have happened, shall, if he consider it a fit case for so doing, make an inquisition into the cause and origin of such fire." Jurors and witnesses are summoned, and the mode of procedure is the same as in inquests in cases of deaths. The Coroner can, if the jury find that any person has wilfully set fire to property, exercise the same authority as in the cases of persons charged with murder or manslaughter. There is a Coroner and a Deputy Coroner for Sydney, and 131 Coroners for Country Districts, as well as two for the Colony generally. (See also Notes, Part VII, "Population and Vital Statistics," and Part VIII, "Law and Crime.")

No. 29.—DEFENCE FORCE.—Regular Military Force, 1893.

Imperial Troops.—New South Wales was garrisoned with British troops from the time of its foundation as a Colony till 1870, when they were withdrawn. In the succeeding year, Act 34 Vic. No. 19 (Military and Naval Forces Regulation Act) was passed, having for its object the establishment of a local permanent force. Under its authority the regulation and discipline of the regular forces are administered.

First Volunteer Force.—The first volunteer force was enrolled in 1854, under Act of Council 18 Vic. No. 8, which was repealed in 1867 in favour of the "Volunteer Force Regulation Act," 31 Vic. No. 5 of that year. Under its provisions the forces were reorganised. One of the clauses of the Act provided for the issue of Volunteer Land Orders, which part was repealed under Act 41 Vic. No. 15 in 1878. The forces were again reorganised in the year last mentioned, and in 1885 an additional force of reserves was attached. The Rifle Reserve companies, were, however, disbanded at the end of 1892 and the Civilian Rifle Clubs at present existing are not considered as being in any sense a military force although their members would probably prove useful as sharpshooters under the direction of regular officers in any case of emergency.

Defence Forces.—Commencing with the year 1895 the Military and Naval Forces of the Colony will consist only of two classes, the Permanent and the Partially-paid. The Scotish Volunteer Corps will from that date form the 5th Regiment.

Military Secretary's Office.—In January, 1892, a Military Secretary's Office was established, the head of which acts as the medium of communication between the military authorities and the Government, through the Principal Under-Secretary. The staff consists of the Secretary (Colonel), 1 chief clerk, 1 examiner of accounts, 2 clerks, and 1 messenger.

Defence of King George's Sound (Western Australia).—New South Wales, together with the colonies of Victoria, Queensland, and South Australia, entered into a contract, 11th March, 1892, with the colony of Western Australia to contribute to the cost of the defence of King George's Sound. The agreement provides that one-fourth of the total expense shall be defrayed by Western Australia, and three-fourths by the colonies named, the proportion to be paid by each colony to be calculated on the basis of its population. Western Australia provides the garrison and has general superintendence.

Defence of Thursday Island (Queensland).—A similar agreement was made, 1st January, 1893, between New South Wales and the colonies of Queensland, Victoria, South Australia, and Western Australia, for the defence of Thursday Island. In this instance the five colonies named contribute towards the expense pro rata, according to the population of each.

Federal Defence.—During October, 1894, an Intercolonial Military Conference was held in Sydney for the purpose of considering and reporting upon a scheme of Federal Defence. A representative from each colony of Australia (except Western Australia) and Tasmania was present. The points considered and reported upon were :—(1) A general scheme of defence which shall be applicable, on federal lines, to the whole of the Australian colonies and Tasmania; (2) the fair allotment of troops for federal purposes due from each Colony; (3) a federal organization applicable to the allotment previously mentioned; (4) to consider the outline of a Military Bill which shall place the whole of the Australian and Tasmanian military forces on a similar basis, as regards military service, discipline, and pay; (5) the question of the appointment of a consulting military engineer to promote the efficiency of the defences of the colonies. The Commission after some days' deliberation adopted a scheme, and the report thereon will be forwarded to the Governments concerned.

No. 35.—IMPERIAL WAR VESSELS on Australian Station, 1893.

The Imperial Defence Act.—This Act (51 and 52 Vic., chapter 32), assented to August, 1888, ratified the agreement between the Australasian and Imperial Governments, and provides for the issue of money from the Consolidated Fund for that purpose.

Australasian Agreement.—This agreement provides for the equipping, manning, and maintaining, at the joint cost of the Imperial and Colonial Funds, a naval force, consisting of five cruisers and two torpedo gunboats, which have the same status as H.M. ships of war. The officers and men are changed triennially, and the limits where they are to be employed in times of peace or war is fixed within the limits of the Australian Station. It is provided that no reduction shall be made of the Imperial squadron in consequence of the equipment of this naval force. The Australasian Colonies contribute 5 per cent. on the cost of these vessels—not to exceed £35,000 per annum—and the actual charge for their maintenance. In the event of loss the Imperial Government has to replace the same. The agreement is for ten years, and only terminable then, provided notice is given at the end of the eighth year. Afterwards the agreement can be terminated by giving two years' notice. The vessels will revert to the Imperial Government on the termination of the agreement. The New South Wales Government ratified the agreement under the Australasian Naval Force Act of 1887 (51 Vic. No. 22).

Boundaries of Australian Naval Station.—These are:—From 95° E. long. by the parallel of 10° S. lat. to 130° E. long.; thence north to 12° N. lat., and along that parallel to 160° W. long., and on the south by the Antarctic Circle, including the numerous groups of islands situated within those limits.

Garden Island.—Garden Island (6a. 3r. 21 p.) was dedicated for the purpose of a Naval Depôt, 1865–6. The works on the Island and elsewhere in connection with the Naval Station, Port Jackson, are being carried out at the expense of the Colony, in consideration of which the Imperial authorities agreed to make Sydney the head-quarters of the fleet, and also to cede to the New South Wales Government certain land and buildings owned by them within the Colony.

No. 36.—PARLIAMENTS.

Constitution Act.—"An Act to confer a Constitution on New South Wales" (Imperial Act 18 and 19 Vic. ch. 54) received the Royal Assent on 16th July, 1855, and was amended in 1884 (47 Vic. No. 5). The Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly correspond, as far as is practicable, with the two Houses of the Imperial Parliament.

Legislative Council.—No maximum number of members of the Legislative Council is fixed by the Constitution Act, it however establishes the minimum number at twenty-one. On 1st October, 1894, the number of members was sixty-five. They receive no allowance for expenses, but are entitled to a railway pass for all New South Wales railways. Although the appointment is for life, a member forfeits his seat by absence from two consecutive Sessions without leave, becoming bankrupt, and for a few other reasons, and can resign at any time. One-fourth of the members on the Roll forms a quorum. The President is appointed by the Governor, who can remove him and appoint another in his place. He can take part in the debates, but has only a casting-vote.

Legislative Assembly.—The first Parliament under the Constitution Act met on 22nd May, 1856. The duration of Parliament, unless previously prorogued, was originally fixed at 5 years, but in 1874 an Act was passed establishing triennial Parliaments. In September 1889, an Act was assented to, allowing each member (not holding office as a Minister, Speaker, or Chairman of Committees) the sum of £300 per annum as a reimbursement for expenses incurred in the discharge of Parliamentary duties. Members also receive passes available for all New South Wales railways. Twenty Members (exclusive of the Speaker—who is elected by the Members) constitute a quorum.

Executive Council.—The Executive Council is composed of the Governor and the members of the Cabinet. Its meetings are convened formally by the Governor, and it cannot discharge any function unless so summoned, and unless at least two members, besides the Governor or presiding member, are present to form a quorum.

Cabinet.—The Schedule of the Constitution Act Amendment Act (47 Vic. No. 5) enumerates the holders of the following offices of profit under the Crown as being the only persons holding any such office who shall be capable of being elected as Members of the Assembly :—

	Salary. £		Salary. £		Salary. £
Colonial Secretary	2,000	Secretary for Lands	1,500	Minister of Public Instruction	1,500
Colonial Treasurer	1,500	Secretary for Public Works	1,500	Secretary for Mines	1,500
Attorney-General	2,000	Minister of Justice	1,500	Postmaster-General	1,500

The salaries of the Colonial Secretary, Colonial Treasurer, and Attorney-General, are fixed by the Constitution Act, those of the remainder have to be passed under the Annual Appropriation Bill. These latter, in accordance with the reduction of 10 per cent. made on all Civil Servants' salaries above £200, were reduced for 1893 to £1,370. The remaining members of the Cabinet voluntarily made similar rebates in the salaries attached to their offices by the Constitution Act.

The Cabinet, if the nine members enumerated above are all Members of the Assembly, generally includes a tenth member, having a seat in the Legislative Council, who is appointed Vice-President and Representative of the Government in that Chamber, but who holds no portfolio.

No. 37.—PARLIAMENT.—Public Acts passed by the Fifteenth Parliament.

Public Bills.

How initiated.—The Constitution Act provides that all money Bills must be introduced in the Lower House only. All other public Bills can be initiated in either Chamber by a motion for leave to bring in the Bill, or by a resolution reported from a Committee of the Whole, and adopted by the House, specifying its intended title.

1st Reading.—After leave has been obtained to bring in a Bill, the question "That this Bill be now read a first time" is put and decided without amendment or debate. If decided in the affirmative, the Bill is printed, and the second reading made an order of the day for a future sitting.

2nd Reading.—On the question for the second reading, amendments may be moved, and it may be postponed, discharged, or referred to a Select Committee.

In Committee.—After the second reading the House resolves itself into a Committee of the Whole to consider the Bill in detail. When the Committee's report is adopted, a future date is fixed for the third reading without notice or debate.

3rd Reading.—On the third reading the Bill may be recommitted or postponed.

Passing.—After passing the third reading the Bill is transmitted to the other House for its concurrence.

Conference.—In the event of disagreement a conference between the two Houses may be arranged.

Royal Assent.—The Governor acts as Viceroy to give the Royal Assent to, or to veto, Acts passed by the Legislature.

Reserved Bills.—There are eight classes of Bills which the Governor must reserve for the special consideration of the Sovereign, amongst which are Divorce Bills, Bills affecting the currency, and Bills conflicting with Imperial Treaty obligations.

Enrolment.—After being assented to, the Bill is numbered immediately before, and the date added next after, the title, a new series of numbers commences with each year of the Sovereign's reign, which begins with the Anniversary of Accession Day. The Act is then transmitted by the Clerk of Parliament to the Registrar-General, and enrolled and recorded by him within ten days from the day on which the same shall become law, as provided by the Deeds Registration Act (7 Vic. No. 16.)

No. 39—GENERAL ELECTION, 1894.—Electorates, Number of Electors, Votes Recorded.

The Parliamentary Electorates and Elections Act of 1893, 56 Vic. No. 38, as amended by 57 Vic. No. 24.—Under the authority of the principal Act three Commissioners were appointed to divide the Colony into 125 single Electorates—instead of as previously 74 Electorates returning 141 members—giving to each as nearly as practicable an equal number of Electors. The Districts were subdivided into 421 Divisions, and the new Electoral Rolls, issued February, 1894, showed the number of Electors in the Colony to be 287,013—an average of 2,296 to each Electorate. The voting power of the Metropolis and Suburbs combined was 34·3 % as against 65·7 % that of the Country Districts. Every man being a natural-born or naturalised subject of or above the age of 21 years, who is of sound mind, and not on full pay in the Military, Naval, or Police Service, nor in receipt of public charity, nor undergoing imprisonment, is entitled to receive an "Elector's Right," provided that he has resided or had his principal place of abode in N.S.W. for a continuous period of one year. The "Rights" issued are available till 31st December, 1896, and provision is made for the issue of new "Rights" on change of residence or in case of loss. Under the Act each Elector, being entitled to vote for one, and only one, candidate at any election, the principle involved is popularly known as "One man one vote."

No. 42.—CONSOLIDATION of the Statute Law.

Appointment of Commissioners.—In October, 1893, the Cabinet approved of a Minute of the Minister for Justice, recommending the arrangement, in a clear, logical form, of the substance of existing enactments, both Colonial and Imperial, in force in New South Wales, such consolidation not to involve any alteration of the law, and that the consolidation should be carried out by a Royal Commission, consisting of the Chief Justice (President), the Judges of the Supreme and District Courts, the President of the Land Appeal Court, the Chairman of the Metropolitan Police Court Bench, the Crown Solicitor, the Parliamentary Draftsman, and representative members of both branches of the legal profession, all of whom are to give their services gratuitously. The Commission having been appointed, entrusted the work committed to it to eight sub-committees, seven of which are presided over by the Judges of the Supreme Court, with a District Court Judge as Vice-Chairman, while the President of the Land Court presides over the remaining committee. A revising committee has also been appointed, consisting of two members of each sub-committee. A draftsman has been appointed to each committee, and these draftsmen are proceeding with the work. The subjects to be dealt with are as follow :—

No. 43.—FISHERIES.—Fishing Licenses, &c., 1893.

The Fisheries Act, 1881 (44 Vic. No. 26), which repealed Acts 28 Vic. No. 10, 31 Vic. No. 10, and 31 Vic. No. 20, was the first formal attempt to legislate with the view of protecting the natural supplies of fish (including oysters, lobsters, and prawns) and to regulate and control their capture. This Act, as amended May, 1893 (46 Vic. No. 25), regulates the description and mesh of nets that may be used, provides for close seasons, the issue of licenses, imposition of penalties, etc. Its administration is entrusted to five Commissioners, appointed by the Governor-in-Council, whose term of office is five years, and whose jurisdiction extends over the entire Colony. The fisheries on the seaboard are distributed by the Act into three divisions—the Home, the Northern, and the Southern. These are placed under the supervision of inspectors and assistant inspectors.

The Inland Waters Fisheries Act, 1887 (51 Vic. No. 26), regulates, in a similar manner, the protection and capture of fish in rivers and creeks situated beyond the influence of tides, as well as in fresh-water lakes, lagoons, and ponds.

Port Hacking.—A short Act was passed August, 1886 (50 Vic. No. 6), to prohibit net-fishing in the waters of Port Hacking.

No. 44.—FISHERIES.—Bags of Oysters Obtained, 1893.

Oyster Fisheries Act, 1884 (48 Vic. No. 6). Under this Act the Commissioners grant two descriptions of leases—(1) long leases of shore and beds of tidal waters of an area not exceeding 25 acres. The term must not exceed 30 years, or be less than 14 years. The rental is 5s. per acre for the first four years, and £1 per acre for the remainder of the term; (2) annual leases of any portion of the shore of a tidal water (not exempted or created a public oyster reserve under the Act). The rental is fixed at £1 for every 100 yards or portion thereof. During 1893, 26 applications for leases of areas of from 100 to 1,000 yards, representing a total area of 6,400 yards, were made; the deposits paid on these applications amounted to £24. The rentals received from leased areas for 1893 was £1,607.

* Highest and lowest temperature.

Thermometers.—The thermometers are exposed in a shed 11 feet square, of which the sides are 5 feet 6 inches high, and enclosed to within 18 inches of the ground with open lattice-work. The roof is conical, rises to 13 feet above the ground, and is covered with louvres close enough to keep out rain. Repeated experiments have been made to determine the relation between temperature in this shed and that shown by a swing thermometer, both night and day, with the result that there is no difference. It is, therefore, assumed that the shade obtained is a satisfactory one.

Earth Thermometers.—The earth thermometers are respectively 11 ft., 6 ft., 3 ft. 6 in., and 1 ft. 1 in. long. One foot of each is devoted to the scale, and is above the surface of the ground. The bulbs are, therefore, 10 ft., 5 ft., 2 ft. 6 in., and 1 in. below the surface of the soil. The stems are placed vertically, and are 7 inches apart; and a small cover with glass front protects the scales from the weather, and keeps the sun from shining directly on to the ground above the bulb, which is buried only 1 inch. There is a wooden case, 3 inches square, round the stem of each thermometer.

Humidity.—The humidity is obtained from the wet and dry bulb readings by means of a set of curves, which show the amount by inspection. These curves have been calculated from the Greenwich Dew Point Factors. The humidity thus obtained agrees with that given by Glaishier's tables.

Rain-gauge.—The rain-gauge is round, 8 inches in diameter, and with rim 15 inches above ground. The pluviometer results are from a gauge of the same size, 9 ft. above ground, and recording on the same sheet as the anemometer. Two similar gauges, placed on the ground 6 ft. apart, are always used; they differ very little, and not always the same way; the larger record is always taken. The amount of dew is found from the rain-gauge. Smaller quantities than the rain-gauge will show are lost

NOTE.—The total rainfall given for each month in Table No. 48 is from the ordinary rain-gauge. The records of the pluviometer are affected by the force of the wind and some loss by friction in the recording machine; the total, therefore, is always less than that shown by the rain-gauge. The total rainfall for 1893 according to Table No. 48 was 49·561 inches, while in the above table it appears as 44·202 inches.

Anemometer.—Records on paper the time, direction, and velocity of wind. Robinson's cups are used. The vane and cups are 65 feet above the ground.

Pluviometer.—Records on the same paper as the anemometer, thus giving at one view wind, rain, and barometer changes.
